

Elliott-O'Brien's Great Final Clearance SALE

Ten Days, only before we quit business in Independence

Store closes, absolutely for good, Saturday, April 14th. Great reductions in Silks, Dress Goods, Linens, Bed Spreads, Draperies, Sheetings, Hosiery, Underwear, Blankets, Men's Furnishings, Men's Shoes, Ladies' and Children's Shoes.

Every article in the store reduced except contract goods

Standard Calicos 5c a yard <small>10 yd. limit to a customer</small>	35c Embroidered Handkerchiefs 12½c each	Apron check Ginghams 5c a yard	75c Boy's Union Suits 49c
---	--	---	--

Ladies' Spring suits, Ladies' wool dresses
Ladies' Spring coats, Ladies' silk dresses at ½ price and less

100 Men's Suits
at actual cost including navy serges
and Oregon Cassimeres

50 Boys' Suits
to be sacrificed
Be sure and see them.

ELLIOTT-O'BRIEN CO., Independence

Ed Griffa is here for a visit with relatives.

Wm. Morris of Dallas visited Sunday with Mrs. Monroe Mulkey.

Mrs. Winnie Braden of Dallas was a business visitor in Monmouth Saturday afternoon.

Chad Newhouse is the latest recruit to join the national guard. He left Monmouth Thursday.

For Sale—Cooking apples at 40c a box W. A. Wood. Phone 1811 2tx

Mrs. F. M. Fisher is at Vancouver visiting her son Ellis who is one of Monmouth's 19 guardsmen.

President J. H. Ackerman departed Tuesday afternoon for Eastern Washington to attend a meeting of the Inland Empire association.

Sumner Ostrom, of Portland, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Ostrom of Monmouth, is one of the Oregon guardsmen who enlisted last week. He is an electrical sergeant in Company 8, coast artillery.

A meeting of patriotic citizens of Monmouth will be held in the Norm theater next Sunday afternoon to see about the organization of a home guard.

The Priscillas will meet with Mrs. T. H. Gentle Saturday afternoon. The subject of the program of the afternoon is "The National Flag and its Development."

Four boys from Lewisville were reported among the recruits Tuesday. Three of them are Messrs. Atwater, Francis and Burke.

Howard Morlan, Milton Force and Walter Brown were all Portland passengers Wednesday. A. M. and Messrs Brown and Morlan plan to take in the sights of the city during the remainder of the week.

Mrs. E. R. Ostrom expects to start Wednesday on a California trip. She will visit with a sister in Long Beach, and will also go to San Bernardino and to Llano in the Antelope valley to investigate a socialist colony at the latter place.

A card from Jas. Hinkle at Vancouver announces that he is still a private and is, with the rest of the company, enjoying drill every day. Clarence Elkins, formerly of this city has been named a corporal while Homer Robb, county surveyor is a sergeant and Waldo Finn, road man is 2nd lieutenant.

The Dallas Observer has it that Milton Force and Miss Edith Anderson were married Feb. 24 at Kalama, Wash. Also that they will go to housekeeping shortly in Portland and Milt will travel for a wholesale grocery house.

C. A. Dobell has accepted a position with the B. Davis Lumber company in Portland for whom he will be office manager and will start upon his duties soon. At present it is the intention of the family to live upon the farm here, at least until school is out.

We wish to thank the many kind friends who offered their assistance to us during the illness and death of our dearly beloved husband and father.

"Verily I say unto you, inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."
Mrs. Wattenburg and Family.

Five Hundred was the attraction at a pleasant little party given by Miss Myra Butler at her home Wednesday evening. Some twenty people were present, including a group from Independence. Mrs. Macy was winner of the first prize and Mrs. Duganne of Independence was awarded the booby prize. Delicious refreshments were served and all report an unusually fine time.

A call meeting of the Civic club is to be held in the library room in the high school building on Friday afternoon at 2:30. The subject of improving the flower garden space in front of the depot will be brought up at this time and a large attendance is desired.

Dr. Price lectured at the Oregon Hygiene society meeting for women at Falls City Wednesday. She reports a large meeting with nearly every family in the city represented and much interest manifested.

Frank Skeen has moved into the house vacated by Mrs. Stitt, taking possession Tuesday. Mrs. Stitt and Mr. and Mrs. Scheible got away for Kelso, Wash., last Sunday.

J. D. Stevens, the second hand man, moved his stock from Mrs. Boche's building to the Rufus Smith building on Main street this week, where he will be ready for business.

For Sale

At the Jackson house on South College Street—Sewing machine, 2 iron bedsteads, springs and mattresses, 2 commodes, sanitary couch, 2 cots, 3 rockers, small cook stove, drop leaf table, folding table, small stand, 3 wash-bowls and pitchers, several chairs, canned fruit and pickles.
M. J. Thomas.

Evangelical Church

Announcements for Sunday, April 8th, 1917:

Sunday School 10 A. M., merging into the Easter program and service at 11 o'clock.

Young People's Alliance, 6:30 P. M.

Evening service, 7:30 P. M. Sermon topics for the day are as follows:

7:30 P. M.—"Why a Resurrection of the Body?"

The special meetings will be continued during the coming week. There will be helpful inspiring music each evening. A cordial invitation to the people is extended.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT

Notice is hereby given that C. Lorence, executor of the estate Phebe Jane Martin, deceased, has filed his final account as such executor in the County Court of the state of Oregon for Polk County, and that said Court has appointed Monday, the 9th day of April, 1917, at the hour of ten o'clock, in the forenoon of said day, at the Courtroom of said County Court, in Dallas, Oregon, as the time and place for the hearing of all objections to the said final account and the settlement thereof.

Dated and first published March 9, 1917.

C. LORENCE,
Executor of the estate of Phebe Jane Martin, deceased.
Oscar Hayter, Attorney.

NORM THEATER Paramount Pictures Monmouth Oregon
Saturday, Apr. 7 A twelve reel show including Pauline Frederick in "Audrey" at 7:30 Regular admission	Tuesday, Apr. 10 Kipling's "Light that Failed" featuring Robert Edison "Lonesome Luke" comedy 7:30 and 9:00 5 and 15c	Thursday, Apr. 12 Linne Ulrich in "The Heart of Paula" A story of love, intrigue and Spanish romance. We will have two endings for this picture. The pleasant one will be used for the first show. 7:30 and 9:00 5 and 15c
"Romona" at the Normal Chapel Friday, Apr. 13 Matinee at 2:30 Evening, 8, p. m.		