Gertrude Wilson, Dallas, secretary.

Sunrise prayer meeting was led by Mr. Charman. At ten o'clock many of the young people attended the C. E. class and heard Mr. Charman talk on "Service."

Sunday afternoon a devotional service was held after which Mr. Graden again talked on Saturday's topics.

In the evening the young people's societies of the city joined in the young people's prayer service which was led by Gladys Parker.

The attendance at the convention was not as large as it might have been but the spirit of Christian fellowship pervaded every service.

"The Mirage Shall Become a Pool", will be the subject of the morning discourse. Probably a visiting minister will speak in the evening.

LOVE ME LITTLE, LOVE ME LONG.

LOVE me little, love me long,
 Is the burden of my song.
 Love that is too hot and strong
 Burneth soon to waste.
 Still I would not have thee cold—
 Not too backward nor too bold.
 Love that lasteth till 'tis old
 Fadeth not in haste.
 Love me little, love me long
 Is the burden of my song.

IF thou lovest me too much,
 'Twill not prove as true a touch.
 Love me little more than such,
 For I fear the end.
 I'm with little well content,
 And a little from thee sent
 Is enough, with true intent
 To be steadfast, friend.

SAY thou lovest me, while thou live
 I to thee my love will give,
 Never dreaming to deceive
 While that life endures.
 Nay, and after death, in sooth,
 I to thee will keep my truth,
 As now when in my May of youth,
 This my love assures.

CONSTANT love is moderate ever,
 And it will through life persevere.
 Give me that with true endeavor.
 I will it restore.
 A suit of durance let it be,
 For all weathers—that for me—
 For the land or for the sea,
 Lasting evermore.

WINTER'S cold or summer's heat,
 Autumn's tempests on it beat,
 It can never know defeat.
 Never can rebel.
 Such the love that I would gain—
 Such a love, I tell thee plain,
 Thou must give or woo in vain;
 So to thee—farewell!
