Local Brevities

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Melburn arrived from Coquille Wednesday for a visit at J. S. Miller's.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Powell of Prineville visited at C. C. Lee's last week end.

Daphne Ostrom who has been home for the past two months has resumed her studies in a Salem business college.

Ellis Fisher and Willie Strong started for Eastern Oregon Monday morning with a view to getting work in the harvest fields.

Dr. Matthis is in Portland attending the sessions of the State Medical Association, the last three days of the week.

Dick Evans, who has taken over D. L. Williams shoe business is a son of E. T. Evans, and is recently from Arizona and California where he has been in business.

Dr. J. A. Matthis has received notice that he has successfully passed his examination and been regularly appointed to the Medical reserve corps of the army.

Sumner Ostrom who has been appointed an electrician sergeant in the coast artillery in Portland is here on a furlough and has gone to the Siletz on a two week fishing trip.

The program at the Normal on the afternoon and evening of the Fourth of July is free to all and everyone is cordially invited to come, bring a lunch and spend the afternoon and evening.

Dick Evans has bought the shoe repair business of D. L. Williams and is located in the latter's former stand. Mr. Williams has moved his feed business into the rooms formerly used as a butcher shop.

Mrs. Sarah Hager returned Thursday from a three day's visit in Falls City. She brought to ye editor a bouquet of beautiful flowers, the gift of her sister, Mrs. E. A. LaDow.

J. M. McDonald attended the McArthur sale of blooded cattle at McCoy Wednesday and ate dinner with the congressman. One of the cows sold for $850, the highest price ever paid for a native cow in Oregon. A bull calf from this cow sold at $350.

Don't be deceived by "endless chain" or other peculiar means of soliciting Red Cross funds. Give no money to strangers on this plea. The Red Cross work is all handled by home people and money contributed to strangers does not reach the cause which it is desired to help.

Gordon Bowman is back in God's country after a varied experience in other sections. He was for a while in the vicinity of Pendleton, but could not stay there as his wife became sick. He was for a short time at Alpine also, but has failed to find anything more attractive than Monmouth, and his many friends here will be glad to hear he plans to stay.

A meeting of Red Cross workers was held Monday afternoon at Mrs. Boche's. That lady has kindly volunteered the use of her room to the workers every day in the week except Thursdays and Saturdays. Mrs. Ostien has obtained a supply of work from Salem and there is plenty for all to do; such as knitting sox, wristlets and sponges, and making bed sox, T bandages, tray cloths, and handkerchiefs. There is big demand for old linen.

Word was received in Monmouth last week, of the death of Charles White at the British front somewhere in France.

Mr. White was an Englishman who spent a couple of years in America, part of the time living at Ballston, Oregon. He was a relative of Mrs. Jacob Smith and visited in Monmouth just before returning to England a few months before the beginning of the war and was among the first in England to enlist. He had been almost constantly in active service since.

Birds and butterflies and bugs were the subject matter of a most interesting lecture at the Christian church Wednesday evening, by Miss Opal Whitely. Miss Whitely has lived in an atmosphere of nature and has an astonishing fund of information relative to the living things that are in the woods and fields. She also has a pleasing manner of telling about them and her lecture was enjoyed by all. She illustrated her remarks with pictures and mounted specimens which were left for inspection by the audience when the lecture was over.
