Received a card from Joe Clark this week, dated at New Orleans and postmarked Montgomery, Alabama. The marines were travelling by rail from Vallejo, Cal. to Quantica, Virginia. They were allowed a few hours to take in the sights of the Crescent City.

Travelling through Louisiana the train met with a bad wreck. One marine was killed and two seriously hurt while ten others were cut up and bruised. Four cars were overturned while two others were forced from their trucks. The car Joe was on jumped the rails but got back on again. There 450 in the company counting officers.

Mrs. M. J. Thomas stopped over in Monmouth Wednesday on her way from Ajax, Gilliam Co. to Pasadena, in the Golden state, where she expects to live with a son. She has one son in the army and a second in the navy but hopes the third will be spared to her. She couldn't stand it in Gilliam county because of the dust and dryness. She reports the grain crop of that section a failure and farmers are hauling water as far as 14 miles. Grain is being cut for hay and the Willamette valley looks a bower of greenness compared to it, says Mrs. Thomas.

Industrial Club Picnics

The Industrial club boys and girls of the Polk county schools whose display of club work at the state fairs has won Polk Co. the blue ribbon for three years are again showing their ability to do things by announcing a series of picnics for Aug. 1, 2 and 3, to be held in different parts of the county.

County Club leader, Floyd D. Moore has arranged to have Governor Withycombe, Senator C. L. Hawley and Prof. M. S. Pittman of the Oregon Normal School and other prominent men as speakers at these picnics. Also committees are working on musical and sport programs. There will be races for all sizes and ages.

Governor Withycombe has gladly consented to meet and shake hands with all club members.

Aug. 1 the picnic will be held in the Lewisville grove a mile north of Airline. All are urged to bring bathing suits as the water is fine and safe at this place. Ice cream and pink lemonade will be available.

Aug. 2 the picnic will be at the Harmony school park four miles southwest of Sheridan.

Aug. 3 Dallas will open its city park to the merrymakers and Mayor Stone has promised to furnish water free for all.

Plans are being made to have picnics near Independence and Brush college later. These picnics are for old and young, club workers and club shirkers and all are welcome. Watch for announcement of complete programs.
