Fishing in the streams of Oregon with seines, traps or fish wheels is absolutely prohibited by the provisions of a proposed initiative bill which has been submitted to the secretary of state for approval as to form.

In response to numerous inquiries reaching the office of the governor and of the state forester, Governor Withycombe explained that his recent proclamation closing the hunting season indefinitely in Oregon applies only to the timbered areas and not to the open country. The season is closed as a precaution against further forest fires.

Hood River county officials, inspecting timber on which they were to levy assessments, were cut off by fires in the Green mountain district, but managed to escape by making a long detour through the woods.

Discussion of measures to stop cattle rustling, numerous complaints of which have come in from ranchers of the upper Deschutes river, featured a meeting held at Bend by stockmen on the invitation of county officials.

The survey of irrigation and power projects in the Hood River valley which will be used as a basis for the

THE Call to the Colors calls for thrift and common sense by everybody. A 10c. pouch of W-B Cut Chewing goes twice as far as 10c.'s worth of ordinary tobacco. That's the big point: W-B Cut isn't ordinary tobacco, it's rich tobacco, and a lasting chew.
