

AN AMERICAN BOY'S BAPTISM OF FIRE

WILLIAM J. ROBINSON

My Fourteen Months at The Front

WILL BE OUR NEXT SERIAL

The most graphic account of the great war that has yet been written comes from the pen of a twenty-two-year-old Boston boy who has just returned from France, where as dragoon guardsman, dispatch rider and motorcar driver he served fourteen months under the British flag and visited every foot of the line the British are holding in France and Belgium.

GRAPHIC AND UP TO THE MINUTE.
JUST WHAT OTHER AMERICAN BOYS WILL FACE

Do Not Miss the Opening Chapter of
My Fourteen Months at the Front

Earliest Germ of Vitality.

The microscopic dot or earliest germ of vitality is the marvel of science today. Everything that lives, whether the giant oak or the monster animal, has each to begin its individual growth from this microscopic dot, which actually contains all the past story of the living growth and every part in miniature of its future frame.

Salad Dressing Boiled.

The following boiled dressing is very nice with tomato, jelly, fish salads and fresh green salad herbs and with a bit of onion or cress makes a delicious filling for sandwiches; it may also be used on bread or rolls when a butter famine shoots up prices: Beat two eggs together, add a tiny pinch of salt, two tablespoonfuls of sugar, half a scant teaspoonful of ground mustard and half a cupful of milk. Mix well and then stir in a quarter of a cupful of vinegar. Cook the mixture until it thickens, taking care to stir it constantly to prevent curdling. Upon removing from the fire let it cool and then add a few drops of olive oil.

THE INEVITABLE.

LIKE the man who faces what he must
With steps triumphant and a heart of cheer;
Who fights the daily battle without fear:
Sees his hopes fall, yet keeps unfaltering trust
That God is God—that somehow, true and just
His plan works out for mortals: not a tear
Is shed when fortune, which the world holds dear,
Falls from his grasp—better, with love, a crust
Than living in dishonor; envies not
Nor loses faith in man, but does his best.
Nor ever murmurs at his humbled lot;
But, with a smile and words of hope gives zest
To every toiler. He alone is great
Who by life heroic conquers fate.
