

MONMOUTH HIGHWAYS

Vol. II Monmouth, Ore., Friday, Nov. 23, 1917 No. 6

Written, Edited and Set in Type by Students of Monmouth High School

A very interesting chorus program was given Friday under the direction of Clay Moreland.

The numbers were song by the Chorus, Reading by Andrew Smith; Quartet, Misses Wade, Graham, Mills, and Ostrom; Reading Lucy Bowman; Vocal solo Imogene Richards; Reading

Bowersox. A number of living war pictures were given, Glenn Turner taking the part of the soldier. The program closed with a song by the chorus.

Mr. Elvin and Mr. Aiken spoke to the Student Body last Friday. They told of the work of the Y.

M. C. A. in combating the evil influences which surround soldiers in the cantonments and in France. They asked for $80 from the Students Body, but instead they got $282.

The High School furnished the music for the Odd Fellows Monday.

The Physiology class dissected some salamander, otherwise water dogs, Monday.

At a boys basket ball meeting last Friday, Gail Hildabrand was elected temporary captain, and Mr. Tavener permanent manager. Practice will be on Mondays and Wednesdays and Fridays at 4:00 o'clock. The boys are showing enthusiasm. Back them up, girls and we'll have another winning team.

The next chorus program will be next Wednesday. Miss Beatrice Pierce is chairman of the committee.

The second game between the Junior and Freshmen girls team was played Saturday. The score was 16 to 5 in favor of the Juniors.

A. L. Tallmon and A. N. Halleck and better halves enjoyed an auto trip to Salem and Dallas, Saturday.

M. K. Boatman was up from Corvallis on business Saturday.

A HARVEST FROLIC

On Saturday evening, November 17th, the Christian Endeavor of the Christian Church gave their first get together party of the season. Nearly eighty young people responded to the invitations which were sent out.

Games furnished the greater part of the entertainment and a jolly time was enjoyed guessing riddles, writing telegrams and through it all becoming better friends. Then came the ever popular event of a party—the refreshments—pumpkin pie and coffee, served in the basement of the church which was prettily decorated with the Endeavor colors.

There was a short but interesting program consisting of solos by Mr. Blackstone and talks by Miss Keeler, president of the society and Mr. Morris, pastor of the church.

The party ended with every one happy and more interested than ever in the problems Christian Endeavor is trying to solve.

Fire Insurance

I have been appointed local agent of the Pennsylvania Fire Insurance Company of Philadelphia. This company is a big, old line fire insurance company, established in 1825.
