MONMOUTH HIGHWAYS

Vol. II Monmouth, Ore., Friday, Feb. 8, 1917 No. 15
Written, Edited and Set in Type by Students of Monmouth High School

This week closes the first semester of the year. Thursday and Friday will be given over to examinations and registration for the second half year.

New subjects beginning this semester are: Plane Geometry, Commercial Arithmetic, Sociology, Botany, Commercial Law and Commercial Geography.

Two Seniors, Lola Morgan and Ellis Fisher have completed their work. Miss Morgan plans to enter the Normal School and Fisher intends to enter the ship yards at Portland.

The attention of the High School

this week is largely, occupied with the Thrift movement and the War Savings stamps. As a final examination in English composition all students are required to submit an essay on the subject of "Thrift and the War Savings Stamps."

Messrs. Ira C. Powell and O. A. Wolverson paid the High School a visit Monday afternoon. Mr. Powell gave the students a very able presentation of the Thrift movement, its history and what it means to the American people.
