Fred Ireland and wife of Corvallis came up to Monmouth for a visit Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Conkey of Dallas spent the week end with Monmouth relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. John Falkenberry of Airlie were visitors at Geo. Sullivan's Sunday. They are moving to Portland where they have two sons at work.

A. L. Tallman who has spent the winter in Portland was here from that town Saturday on business. He is working in one of the steel company plants there and likes his job.

Walter Scott is the latest of Monmouth's carpenters to leave town with the ship yards of Portland as the objective.

Ed Griffa departed for Portland Wednesday morning, seeking for a job in the ship building in progress there.

A. E. Alderman is to be night clerk at the hotel beginning the first of the month.

J. S. Prime had his house improved this week with a new bath tub installed by C. G. Griffa.

Miss Hurner, who lives in the Evenden house, West Main St., will do your dressmaking and do it right. See her.

Talking about Dentistry, Maurice J. Butler is located over the post office. Will do work evenings by appointment. 13t

E. R. Ostrom seriously injured one of his feet while cutting wood Friday. His ax penetrated quite a ways into the foot, making an injury that will lay him on the shelf for a time.

Mutual Weekly, always interesting with its record of illustrated events is a feature at the Norm, Saturday night. Another feature is a comedy in which "Shorty" Hamilton traps a lottery king and another "His Mother's Portrait", a dramatic production.

Geo. W. Richardson of Portland stopped in Monmouth over night, Tuesday, on his way to Airlie where the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Mary Richardson was held Wednesday. Mrs. Richardson died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. J. Wright, in Portland and her body was brought to Polk county for burial. She was 87 years of age.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Smith of Punxsutawney, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Lester Niel, Mrs. Sam Hanna and little daughter Frances of Independence, were guests of John Fuller and family Thursday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith expect to leave in about a week for their home in Pennsylvania. They will be accompanied by Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. Hanna and a brother Mr. Dave Hanna and family of Independence, who intend to make their home in that state.

R. Dunlop of Brownsville has rented the Wattenberg place and will move his family to Monmouth to take advantage of educational privileges.

Guy Sacre, who has been employed in the S. P. depot the past winter, has gone to Tillamook to work with his brother Albert in the logging industry there. His place in the depot has been taken by one of the McNeil boys.

Chester Briedwell came down from Amity on a business trip to Monmouth, Tuesday.

Mrs. J. B. V. Butler and Mrs. Cletus Butler entertained the Social Hour Club on Feb. 20. A thoroly good time was enjoyed by the large number of members present. Mrs. Henkle of Corvallis was a pleasant out of town guest. During the afternoon Mrs. Butler Jr. played several delightful selections on the piano, after which all joined in singing our National Song. Club will meet next week with Mrs. Staats.

J. S. Miller who recently moved onto the Steele farm in the Luckiamute region is having the house fitted up with a modern water system. C. E. Stewart has been down on the place for the week past doing the work.

Mrs. Boche has resumed her regular business of dressmaking and old patrons as well as new will find her willing and ready to serve. Corner Echols and Jackson streets. 4t
