A Pleasant Reunion

Contributed

The children of David M. Guthrie, deceased, a Polk county pioneer of 1846, decided a few days previous and made arrangements over the phone to meet at Helmick Bridge Grove on the Luckiamute and spend the day, which they did to the number of 42.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Harvey E. Guthrie of Monmouth, their son Hugh M. Guthrie, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Rickard of Corvallis, Mrs. M. J. Remington and daughters Reta and Bertha, also Mr. and Mrs. Clarence White-side and sons Harold and Jack, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mosier of Corvallis and daughters Carrie and Grace and son David of Silverton, Mr. and Mrs. Silas E. Rhodes and daughter Mrs. Frank Bly and little son of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Guthrie and son Elmer Guthrie and son Kenneth of Guthrie school district, D. A. Guthrie, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Guthrie and sons Hubert and Melvin, Mr. and Mrs. Armond Guthrie and son Lester and daughter Winifred from their farms near Dallas, also neighbors Mr. and Mrs. Messelli and son Ben Messelli, Mr. and Mrs. Isenhagen and Miss Mamie Peterson and Elbert Peterson of Guthrie school district. There were nine autos which conveyed all including individual owners. All arrived on the grounds at 10:30 o'clock and dinner was served from well filled baskets of War saving viands, at high noon. Some of the younger set openly avowed their thanks that Hoover had not yet placed a restriction on chicken, eggs, green onions, fresh cherries, strawberries, potato salad, and "sich" like. The entire party remained for the afternoon and enjoyed the pleasant leafy shade and talk of old times and new times, till 5 o'clock, when coffee was again made and supper served on the
