

15c Bar

2 bars for 25c

Perkins' Pharmacy

If we haven't got it we'll get it. Ask us.

Local Brevities

Maxwell Bowersox is working in Portland.

Mrs. W. L. Phillips came down from Tillamook county this week to put up some cherries.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stockholm invited in a party of friends and spent the Fourth at a home picnic at the Monmouth Orchards.

Captain W. A. Elkins, chaplain in the national army and stationed in the encampment at the mouth of the Columbia, enjoyed a furlough of five days with his family in Monmouth this week.

Johnny Parker was in Portland recently having his tonsils removed. Returning he brought along two boy cousins to show them the delights of rural life. Although inclined to be a little shy and retiring the boys are catching on fast and bid fair before their visit is ended to have a real enjoyable time.

Two furnished houses to rent and one unfurnished. See W. J. Miller.

FOR SALE—The H. J. Butler farm in North Monmouth, inside city limits, in 5, 14, 17, 21 and 40 acre tracts. G. T. Boothby.

FOR SALE—Team of mules, wagon and harness. Also good single horse. J. F. McClellan.

FOR SALE—Warehouse with or without lot, on Eccles Street. Nettie Boche. 3x

FOR SALE—4 Work horses, 2 Heavy wagons and 2 sets harness. Carl Pollan, Monmouth, R. D. 4t

J. Winegar and M. J. Butler spent Sunday in the mountains of Linn county, trying out the fishing spots where A. J. Craven had met with luck the week before. You might ask them how they fared.

Miss Vivian Holman of Dallas is visiting with her aunt, Mrs. J. L. VanLoan.

Elec. Sgt. S. W. Ostrom and wife of Fort Canby spent last week end visiting with relatives and friends in Monmouth.

Mrs. Clarence Ferguson and three sons of Portland are visiting with her mother, Mrs. Wm. Alderson and while the boys are enjoying country life their mother is assisting with the harvest work of putting up fruit. Last week, Mr. Ferguson, a teacher in the schools of Portland was helping Dick Alderson in putting up hay.

Threshing is about scheduled to begin. Fall grain on high ground is already ripe and is being cut.

Howard Morlan, who is being specially educated for service by Uncle Sam, at the Benson Polytechnic in Portland, was a visitor with parents and friends in Monmouth Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Griffa gave their annual reception to their summer school tenants Tuesday evening. There are thirty three of the girls and they had a nice program consisting of vocal, instrumental and string music, readings, dialogues, etc., with refreshments bringing to a close a very pleasant evening.

Ed Griffa is in Portland this week and expects to resume his duties in the Siletz country next Monday.

The Evangelical parsonage is being fitted with bath tub and lavatory this week.

Miss Doughty's house is now all ready for occupancy.

Mrs. Geo. Sullivan was a visitor in Dallas Tuesday.

For lack of a quorum the first bi-weekly session of the council for July was omitted Tuesday night.

Miss Laurel Canning has taken work for the summer with the forest reserves in the mountains of Lane county. She is stationed at McKenzie Bridge.

Mrs. Prime and Mrs. Perkins are chaperoning a party of loganberry pickers who have been busy for the past three weeks working for a grower in the vicinity of Salem. They camp out during the week coming home for Sunday.

John Howell is building a substantial addition to his house and not to encroach on the elbow room he enjoys with his neighbors is building sky ward where there is plenty of room. He plans to fit his house for roomers and will give up the boarding end of the business, arranging it so the girls can board themselves.

The Independence post office was reduced from the Civil Service class July 1 and Mrs. H. S. Wood has taken the position of deputy post

Canvas Shoes for Summer Comfort

Shoes for the little tots

as well as for grown-ups.

Different grades from the cheap white or black tennis shoes to the dainty high heel white pumps built on custom fitting lasts. at the mistress.

Miller Mercantile Company

Dr. Dunsmore of the Independence Presbyterian church believes in vacation for himself and his congregation and will hold no more services until fall.

Monmouth Heights

Misses Emma and Grace Parker and Bessie Foster of Monmouth walked out to the Heights and spent an enjoyable Fourth on its summit.

Merle Mulkey, Walter Strain of Monmouth and Ray Adams of Cochrane were in this vicinity the first of the week.

Carl Pollan of the Luckiamute was in these parts on business Tuesday.

Herman Gwin of Monmouth blasted big oak stumps out of Roy Smith's prune orchard here Monday.

Leslie Riddell of Texas is here visiting at his parental home, Mr. Wm. Riddell, Sr.

Jess V. Johnson and family of the Luckiamute were Sunday guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lafe Johnson.

Tom Strain and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Strain of Monmouth were on the Heights Tuesday evening.

For any thing you want or don't want try our bargain column. It will buy or sell for you.

WALTER G. BROWN

Watches and Jewelry. Repairing

Read your own Herald $1.50 per year

MONMOUTH HOTEL

Changed ownership, we solicit your patronage. Square deal guaranteed.

JOHN DENNEY proprietor

Save Money by Saving Shoes

Practice economy and help Win the War we are told. How better can you save than by making one pair of shoes do for two? Bring them to me. They may be pretty well gone but I can add weeks to their usefulness. I sell new shoes, too.

Men's Muleskin Shoes for Summer comfort, $2.95 pr. Boys' $2.50, Youth's $2.25

Electric Shoe & Harness Shop

R. J. EVANS, Prop.

Harnesses Mended

Shoes Repaired

Women and Girls

LEARN TO WEAVE---IT'S EASY

Help Your Country

We pay 20 cents per hour while learning

After Learning Paid by the Yard at Good Prices
Daylight Modern Workroom. Clean and Sanitary

Good Openings Also For Men And Boys

OREGON CITY WOOLEN MILLS