Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Waller, Miss Neta Waller of Monmouth and Miss Eileen Hewitt of Independence motored to LaFayette Sunday and spent the day in the park at the locks of the Yamhill in that vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Miller expect to retire from an agricultural life next spring, having leased their Luckiamute farm. They have sold their smaller farm, southwest of Monmouth.

Mr. Guild was helping the people of the "Faculty house" get ready for moving, Saturday.

Miss Dorcas Conklin and Sunday School class of six boys enjoyed a picnic one day last week in Craven's woods and all report a fine time.

Miss Mary Rice is doing her share in helping win the war. She is spending her vacation working for Fred Huber and has done the mowing, raked the hay, run the hay baler, doing anything and everything she can set her hands to in the way of farm work.

E. M. Ebbert and M. J. Butler are finding use for leisure time these days by getting up their next season's fuel. They are laboring in Clark Hembree's woods putting in a stated period of time each week.

Miss Hoham announces that the concert to be given July 25 is her "last show" as she is not to be back in the Normal next Fall. The nature of Miss Hoham's work has brought her much in contact with the people of Monmouth and she will be missed by all. And by none more than in the office of the Monmouth Herald.

Miss Mabel Johnson who has been doing musical work in Vancouver, has recently been promoted to a position in an orchestra where she plays the piano at a salary of $22 per week. She enjoys her work and is getting along nicely.

The Leask cement block house, recently vacated by Miss Parrott is now occupied by the family of Captain Elkins. Mrs. W. J. Evans has moved out of the Lucas house to the Lorence house across the street, recently vacated by O. Whiteaker. Two of Mrs. Evans' daughters, one from Portland and the other from Wyoming, have been here helping her move.

Fritz Kinderman of King's Valley accidentally shot himself with an automatic pistol, 32 calibre. The bullet entered the right leg just above the knee, breaking the bone.

On Thursday, July 25 will occur the regular summer school concert of the Music Department. The Glee Club will sing "The Lady of Shalott" by Bendall, with Miss Mary Randall and Miss Ruby Tipton singing the solos; Mr. John Claire Monteith, of Portland, will give a program of songs and the Normal Orchestra will play. The evening will be delightful. All are most cordially invited to attend. Tickets on sale at Morlan's, Monday, July 21, at noon. 25 and 35 cents.

Edward F. Gholson, aged 84, died at Zena July 15. He was born in Iowa.

Tribulations of Newspaperman

Union printers and pressmen in the employ of the Daily Capital Journal, published by Charles H. Fisher, today walked out in a body, following adoptions of resolutions excoriating the Journal and its management for its editorial views implying, according to the union men, that union labor is in sympathy with the Kaiser and enemies of the Government of the United States. The resolutions, which were adopted by Capital Typographical Union, declare that the union "hereby indorses and authorizes the withdrawal of its members from that office and that such withdrawal remain in effect so long as the present management of the Daily Capital Journal exists."

Publisher Fisher issued a handbill today stating that the men had walked out because of criticism in his editorials and stated that the paper will "not be gagged" and that it will be published within a few days.

L. S. Barnes, of Portland, president of the Capital Journal Company, communicated with the executive council of the union by telephone, asking that steps be taken to publish a paper to guard his interests. The executive committee agreed to publish a paper for Mr. Barnes, providing Mr. Fisher left the office. Mr. Fisher declined to allow publication under those conditions.

In its statement of grievances the Capital Typographical Union quoted as follows from the editorial which was deemed objectionable:

"The commercial telegraphers expect the Government to bribe them to stick to their keys. Like every other branch of union labor engaged in industries affecting war work, they are for the Kaiser unless their unreasonable demands are met. The shipyard and munition plant workers are a fair sample of the entire Federation of Labor. They are led by anarchists and I. W. W. as visionary and impractical as the Russian bolsheviks, but lacking their honesty of pur-
