Dietetic Habits.

Some people seem to think that a vegetarian is a curiosity. A rough calculation shows that the population of the world, now estimated approximately at 1,000,000,000, is said to be divided as to dietetic habits about as follows: Strict vegetarians, 250,000,000; practically vegetarians, but eating a little fish or flesh, 450,000,000; eating meat about once a week (on high days and holidays), 500,000,000; eating meat daily and sometimes more than once a day, 400,000,000.

Queer Epitaphs.

Queer epitaphs are frequently fakes; but the following really appears in a Salop churchyard: "Elizabeth, the wife of Richard Barklamb, passed to eternity on Saturday, 21st of May, 1797, in the seventy-first year of her age. Richard Barklamb, the Antepouse Uxorious, was interred here, 26th Jan., 1800, in his eighty-fourth year." What an antepouse uxorious may be is not explained.—Cardiff Western-Mail.

Conserve Enthusiasm.
Are you a boy or girl who becomes very enthusiastic about some nice thing you want to do? Be careful not to be so enthusiastic in starting a new undertaking that you have no energy left for carrying it through to completion. Enthusiasm is an important factor in success, but it must be a steady flow, and not burst forth like some of the geysers which send a spout of water skyward, and then are quiet for 24 hours.—Exchange.

Camp Fire Picnic

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Craven and Miss Margaret Rice entertained at a jolly picnic in honor of their house guests, last Saturday evening. An immense camp fire illumined a large portion of Craven's woods for the occasion, and a large table, generously loaded with Polk county's good eatables, was in comfortable proximity to the fire. Various stunts, races, games and story-telling, interspersed with much toasting of weiners and marshmallows, detained all until a late hour. The splendid time enjoyed was one to be remembered. Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hoech and daughters, Mrs. Richard Shepard and Miss Miriam Shepard, Mr. and Mrs. E. Rice and the Misses Margaret, Mary and Maud Rice and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Craven and little daughter.

Miss Margaret Rice entertained a party of Shaniko friends last weekend. They were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hoech and little daughters, Erma and Irene. The Hoechs are spending a short vacation in Portland and enjoying motor trips into Southern Washington and various Willamette Valley points. They were driving a handsome Peerless Eight, which elicited much favorable comment from local car owners.

Mr. Hoech is a large land owner in Eastern Oregon, and a banker in his home town, and was very favorably impressed with crop conditions in Polk county. On their return to Portland Sunday evening, Miss Rice accompanied them for a short visit in the metropolis.
