Lieutenant Lagoni then gave orders to disable the wireless plant and told Rose that the tug could not assist him off the beach and that at the end of twenty four hours the vessel would be interned, providing she was still under the German flag, and advised him to land any prisoners he had. —Captain John S. Cameron, in the November Sunset.

A very entertaining program was given by the Delphian Society on Friday evening, November 1, 1918. At the joint program the Delphians were represented by Miss Sadie Haveley with a very fetching little Quaker song, and by Miss Edith Sumner with an especially appropriate reading.

After the joint program and a short business meeting conducted by the Vice-President, Miss Pauline Beck, the regular program of the Delphian Society opened with an unusually interesting Shadow Play, directed by Miss Clara Scharp. A well-known Mother Goose Rhyme was cleverly camouflaged and introduced in a novel manner.

A very weird spectacle was witnessed when eighteen of the Delphian girls, robed in white, bearing jack-o'-lanterns, slowly and stealthily moved about the stage to the accompaniment of uncanny noises; as the wind howling and cats yowling. This number was directed by Miss Edith Maison.

Something different and very apropos to the occasion was produced in the form of a pantomime, "Miles Standish", under the able generalship of Miss Chloe Buell. The periods of intermission were made very delightful by the musical contributions of Vera Hudson.

The critic's report given by Miss Blanche White was apt and to the point.

Miss Smith, Critic of the First and Second grades of the Monmouth Training School, represented the Faculty Wednesday's chapel. "The Heart of a Child" was Miss Smith's subject and her sympathetic presentation and telling illustrations made an impression upon the student body that will carry her message into many schools.

The Y. W. C. A. of the Oregon Normal has the honor of making the initial donation to the Normal War Work Campaign Fund. At their meeting last Tuesday evening they voted to give $50.00 out of their treasury to aid in this work.

placement, a room 10x15 feet with sandbag timber walls, a salvaged stove in one corner and a good fire. There is plenty of wood here, being on the edge of a large forest, mainly larch and oak. They have dry roomy quarters, the best I've seen for soldiers. I wish they could be housed here for the winter."

Although Mr. Ostien and son have been in France for some time they have never been able to connect before and have barely succeeded in corresponding by mail.

Movements of Soldiers

From word received this week it is evident that Monmouth soldiers are on the move. A card from Oscar Zook announces that he was at the time at Windson, Ont., and Howard Morlan is moving from Leavenworth, Kan., to Camp Meade, Maryland. Howard's company preceded him somewhat, he having been held back to do instruction work for a brother officer who was sick. Captain W. L. Elkins is still held at Ft. Stevens although he has repeatedly hoped his time had come when men with whom he had been training have been ordered to entrain. From across the sea we learn that Birchard Van Loan who has had share of trench duty is now detailed as one of the mail carriers for the fighters. Herbert Evans, spoken of in another column of this paper, is having some of the experiences of war. On his last trip he was detailed as a guard during the loading of his boat in Europe, the loading being done by German prisoners. The prisoners were anxious to get war news and Herbert told one who inquired that the Germans would surrender in ten days. The prisoners seemed hopeful but a little pessimistic. Ten days they thought a little too speedy for the finish.

Armistice Not Signed?

LATEST—The Associate Press declares that while the commissioners have arrived and entered into conference the articles of armistice have not yet been signed or agreed upon. The day's report is from the Hearst service and apparently strives to steal a march on an assured fact for the purpose of fabled advantage. At any rate Monmouth, Independence and Salem celebrated.

Independence Corn Show, Dec. 13-14

At a meeting of the Corn Show Board last week, it was decided to hold the Annual County Corn Show at Independence on December 13 and 14.

The following committee was appointed to take charge of the exhibits and entertainment: F. L. Fitchard, Ross Nelson, E. E. Dickson, A. C. Moore and Mrs. K. C. Eldridge of Independence.

Mr. H. E. Gregory was appointed manager of the show and will have charge of the publicity work.

A women's department and a boys' and girls' club department have been added to the regular show, and if plans carry, a poultry department will be included.

Unusual interest is being manifested in the Corn Show this year by the farmers who have harvested one of the finest corn crops in the history of the county. All persons who plan to make exhibits should notify the secretary immediately. Select your corn now and have it thoroughly dry so it will keep for the show.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stockholm are in Hood River this week visiting with relatives. During their absence H. K. Sicksfoose is keeping things in motion at the Monmouth Orchard.

With the ban on public meetings and suppression of social gatherings in the city locals are few and far between.

The Christmas box committee will be at the post office Friday at 2 o'clock and on Tuesday at 2 and will confer with and assist people who have Christmas remembrances for the soldiers.

Card of Thanks

To the Voters of Polk County—and particularly, the Monmouth people:

My appreciation for the fine support at the polls can not be satisfactorily expressed in words but I hope to so conduct myself and the office of county clerk after January 1, in a manner that will justify your confidence.

John was visiting his grandmother, who lived in the country. One day his grandmother found that John had but a few clean clothes left, so she told John to write to his mother and tell her to send him some new clothes. John obeyed immediately, and in a few minutes returned and showed her the letter, which was as follows: "Dear mamma, please send me a reinforcement of clean clothes."

Combs.

Combs have been used in the toilet since very ancient times. The Greeks, the Egyptian and the Roman ladies used them to arrange and hold up their hair; even ladies among the Swiss lake dwellers seem to have been familiar with them. Some of these were made of wood, some of bone, of horn or of ivory. Specimens have often been found in recent years.

That Golden Tomorrow.

It is easy to believe in that golden tomorrow. To young people particularly, the future seems bright with promise, no matter what the complexion of the present. But it should be remembered that tomorrow is likely to have a strong resemblance to today, and that the future is made golden by ardent work in the present.

MOTHERS and sisters of America, there are a thousand girls over there who are representing you. They are the girls of the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A. and the lassies of the Salvation Army. Boys come back to them at night hungry for a woman's voice in a language they can understand. They bring your letters; and the pictures of you—their sisters and their mothers over here. Have you ever stopped to think that this is the first war in which the influence of good women followed the boys straight up to the front? It's worth a lot to you to keep that influence strong and permanent. Keep it so through the
