Monmouth Highways

Vol. III Monmouth, Ore., Jan. 3, 1919 No. 6

Written and Edited by Students of Monmouth High School

School was resumed in M. H. S. on Monday after the three days vacation which was granted us last week. Attendance is quite up to standard with the exception of one unfortunate absence. Miss Gaylord has been detained at her home in Tillmook on account of illness, but we hope to have her with us by next week.

M. H. S. S. A. entertained itself and a few outside guests at a watch party on New Years eve. Beginning about eight o'clock the watchers saw the old year out and the new year in. The first part of the evening was devoted to the playing of quiet games, but later on the players adjourned to the upper hall where games of a more lively sort were begun. Following this a program was given in the assembly, including these numbers:

- Songs by the chorus
- Reading, Wendell Van Loan
- Piano Duet, Helen Cornelius
- Peggy Deering
- Reading, Paul Sayre
- Popular Songs, Chorus
- Vocal Solo, Imogene Richards
- Talk, Miss Hislop
- Talk, Miss Henry
- Reading, Clay Moreland

Shortly after midnight those attending were served with hamburger sandwiches, hot chocolate and cookies. All departed at an early hour.

A meeting of the Y. N. O. A. was held Thursday night. No light has so far been shed on the doings of the Nuts on this occasion, except that they entertained themselves with a program given by different ones of their talented number.

Basket ball playing with outside teams has been definitely forbidden for the remainder of the season in accordance with a decision given by those in authority. Needless to say, the members of both teams are very much disappointed to lose the several interesting games which had been planned for the near future, but the seriousness of health conditions in neighboring towns, makes such care advisable.

Coughs and Colds

may lead to something more serious. Don't neglect them. We have several standard remedies that have proved successful. Try them.

Only Today is Ours.

The opening of the year is everybody's birthday. God has let us share his work. God has gifts for days to come. We may send our thoughts back through the ways of memory; we must send them forth through opening paths of faith and hope. The past will come no more, but today is ours and tomorrow is in the hands of everybody's birthday, then, bring joy and courage! May God's spirit help us, each and everyone, to walk with God and spend a joyful year in the service of his Kingdom.
