What Big Men Say

Shoes Repaired

Sometimes it's just bunk—and sometimes it's the real goods, as in the remarkable series of interviews by Henry Irving Dodge, just starting in

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

'What have you to do with the cost of living?" Mr. Dodge asked Secretary of Interior Lane; Swift, the Chicago meat packer; Gentry, the Missouri breeder of champion Berkshire hogs; McCormick, the maker of farm implements; a big railroad president; a great Wall Street financier; and several others of like importance in our national life.

What such men say is worth dollars and cents to every one of us— farmer, banker, mer-chant, housewife. Yet these remarkable interviews are just one feature in a year's subscription to THE COUNTRY GEN-TLEMAN — 52 big issues, each as hardheaded as the
