Vol. III Monmouth, Ore., Mar. 14, 1919 No. 11
Written and Edited by Students of Monmouth High School

The Amity Basket Ball Teams met the Monmouth Teams on the home floor Tuesday, March 11, 1919. The girls' teams played a preliminary game, defeating the visiting team with a score of 2 to 1. The boys were less fortunate, and let Amity win over them with 22 to 11 as a score.

The first joint meeting of the Athena and Y. N. O. A. societies was held Thursday evening. A very good program was rendered by members of each society. Following is the program:

Song—Chorus—"The Purple and White."
Talk—Dorris Lee
Reading—Miss Mary Hislop
Song—Boys' Quartette
Song—Zeta Smith, "Poor Butterfly", Accompanied by Helen Cornelius and Ethelva Elkins
Talk—"Madam Butterfly"—Miss Beatrice Gaylord
Talk—Miss Doughty
Reading—Harold Price
Ukulele Duet—Helen Cornelius and Grace Graham

Talk—Dad Sickafoose
Debate—Resolved that married life is more pleasant than single life. Affirmative: Hope McDonald, Beth Ostrom, Dorcas Conklin. Negative: Clay Moreland, Paul Sayre, James Partridge.
Song—Chorus.

On Tuesday, March 18, the Woodburn boys basket ball team and the Silverton girls team will meet the local teams at Monmouth.

Monmouth went over the top in the Armenian drive with a total collection of $453.90. O. A. Wolverton, who had charge of the drive is much pleased with the result, $400 being the amount asked for. The committees express through the Herald their appreciation of the good work of the citizens of the Monmouth community.

There will be a free banquet in the Christian Church Saturday evening, March 15, given by the Sunday School to all its members and their friends.

Geo. Conn of Airlie was a business visitor in Monmouth Wednesday.

Margery, the baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ingard died Sunday and was buried Monday at Corvallis. She had had the influenza as did both of her parents and the complication was a bit too much for her. The little girl was four months old.

Mrs. G. W. Baun and Wilda Fuller spent last week end at Portland and Vancouver, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Bell of Rickreall spent the day Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Baun.

At the last house meeting at the Dormitory the following officers were elected for this semester: Clara Sharp, President; Meda Angell, Vice-President; Shannon Pettinger, Secretary and Treasurer; Helen Coe, Song Leader and Edith Sumner, Reporter.

James Hinkle, looking sleek and prosperous arrived in Monmouth Wednesday from his soldier adventures in France.

Mrs. E. W. Staats will entertain the Social Hour Club on Wednesday, March 19th.

A postal card from Clarence Walker this week states that he is back from a trip over seas and expects to start for France soon. He is in the navy.

Sheriff Orr was a visitor in this city Tuesday. While he always keeps a weather eye open for blind pigs he said he suspected none in Monmouth. Jamaica ginger and Hostetter's bitters appear to be the soak's best refuge now.

Mrs. E. B. Hamilton, who was a visitor in Monmouth Monday says she expects her husband within the next few months. He does not plan to wait for the regular discharge of his regiment.

All of the banks of Polk county have entered into an agreement to close their doors at 3 o'clock p. m. instead of 4 as has been the case heretofore. The change is made to allow the clerical work that follows the closing hour to be finished within the regular hours of work.

When Sunday and pleasant weather come together at this time of the year there are not many people who will stay in doors and it seemed as if everybody took advantage of the opportunity Sunday afternoon.

Irvin Stewart has been driving the bus this week.

Sam Morrison and L. Huston of Monmouth were in this vicinity buying cattle the first of the week.

Miss Bentley, teacher in the schools of Marshfield who died from the effects of the flu last week, was a graduate of the Normal and is remembered by many here.

D. C. McNeil who has been spending the winter with relatives in Drain is back in Monmouth again.

W. J. Mulkey, Jr. was home from the university at Eugene for a Sunday holiday with his parents in Monmouth.

Elkins Rural Center

The Elkins Community responded to the recent drive for Armenian funds with a contribution of $54.80. Of this amount the school contributed $13.80.

The Literary Society of the school held their election recently and the results were as follows: President, Melford Nelson; Vice President, Frank McEldowney; Secretary, Ruth Tetherow; Treasurer, Tommy McEldowney; Sergeant-at-Arms, Maud McEldowney; Editor, Marjorie Tedrow; Censor, Miss Jewel Delk.

Last Friday afternoon the Literary enjoyed a musical program on the graphophone. Carl Tetherow and Frank McEldowney furnished the records.

The Health Contest for last month resulted in victory for Melford Nelson's side. The losing side is to entertain the victors at a St. Patrick's afternoon, March 21st.

The Parent Teachers Association meet this next Friday afternoon. Plans are being made for an all day Community gathering to observe Arbor Day on March 28.

Delegates were elected at Sunday School last Sunday to represent the Elkins Sunday School at the County Convention, March 19, 20 and 21. The following delegates were selected: Frank McEldowney, Melford Nelson, Harold Price, Carl Tetherow, Fred Schoal, Mrs. Jones and Mrs. McEldowney.

Miss Jessie Jenks of Tangent, Oregon, is finishing her last week of practice teaching at Elkins this week.
