Baptist Church Notes

"The Supreme Task of the Church: a Big Job for Little Churches" is the subject announced for the Pastor's sermon next Sunday morning. This will be discus-ed under the sub-topics—"Making all men Christian in character and service; Making this world like Heaven; and, Making the Kingdoms of this world, Kingdoms of Christ."

All interested in vital, aggressive and progressive religion are especially invited.
The evening topic will probably be: "What kind of a Christian are you?"
The Ladies' Industrial Club will meet Thursday afternoon.
E. B. Pace, Pastor.

Evangelical Church Notes

Sunday, March 30. At 11, Subject: "The Making of a Christian—his Birth." Song by a mixed quartette.
At 7:30, Subject: "The Power of the Gospel."
Sunday School at 10. A. N. Poole, Superintendent. Y. P. A. at 6:45.
Subject: "On the Fence." Leader, Marian McDonald.
Evangelical services each evening except Saturday evening. Services begin at 7:45.

The pastor will endeavor to conduct a safe and sane Evangelistic service beginning Wednesday evening March 26 and continuing indefinitely.

The great themes of the gospel will be made prominent only. We are praying for a revival wherein men and women, old and young, will get something that will do them good in life, in death and as long as the eternal hours roll. All are invited and are assured a warm welcome and a glad hand.
P. Conklin.

Recreation Center Needed

With the passing of the saloon people are coming to realize that public recreation should not be privately directed. Such a thing as we contemplate will soon be common in this country. It is peculiarly needed in Monmouth. Let us join forces and get it. It can be done with a united effort. Boost for the Memorial hall and buy your stationery, books, periodicals etc. of Shoes For the Little Ones

We have just received a new lot of shoes and slippers in white, gray and brown, and in sizes for the small children. Colored shoes are popular for every one just now, so bring the little one to the store and make it happy with a pretty new pair of shoes or slippers.
