Lewis Burlingame entertained a number of his relatives from Pleasant View Friday night. They arrived by auto about 1 o'clock in the morning and had quite a time locating him but finally succeeded.

Vern Alsip contracted blood poisoning in a blister on one of his feet and is now navigating with the aid of crutches.

Mr. Keeney of Ballston and family have moved into the Bedwell property recently purchased by him.

Jess Zook and family were over from Dallas Sunday to visit with relatives.

Carl Micheaux of McMinnville visited with friends in this city Sunday.

Robert Burnett, a dentist of Eugene but who formerly lived in this city, was the guest of A. N. Hallock Sunday.

Dean Sellers was here from Banks Monday interviewing the school teachers. He expects to keep up his studies and graduate by home work.

W. M. Bennett has wound up the deal for the sale of his farm and leaves this week for Seaside with Mrs. Bennett where they will live with a daughter.

The starting of the university this week took a number of our young people to Eugene. Among them are Guy Sacre, Stanley Evans, Birchard Van Loan, Bob Hendren, Clares Powell, the Gentle brothers and Miss Laurel Canning.

Social Hour Club

The first regular meeting of the Social Hour Club after the summer vacation was held on Wednesday, October first, at the home of Mrs. Crofoot, with a large proportion of the members present.

Plan of work for the year was decided and all books reported. Following the business meeting, the hostess served refreshments of ice cream and wafers and a social hour was enjoyed by all present.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ground on Wednesday, October 15.

on Fordsons

but our schedule calls for

3 Car Loads

yet this Fall. The first is due in about two weeks. The second shortly after.

It pays to wait for value

The man who waits for a Fordson will soon overtake and pass the man who buys a substitute. Experience has proven this.

There are nearly 100 Fordsons now working in Polk county.

The Fordson is a clean high class piece of machinery. With the Fordson comes real service. The Fordson could double its price and not find a worthy competitor.

Place your order now.
