

SUPPLEMENT TO
The Monmouth Herald
 Monmouth Ore., Nov. 7, 1919

An extra crew of deputies was added by the marshal to his force on the night of Hallowe'en and as a result only a few small depredations were perpetrated. Wet weather helped to throw a blanket on the plans of the boys and it was a very quiet night compared with some similar evenings in years past.

Ed Huber who has for the past two years been located in Eastern Oregon was mingling with friends and relatives in our midst this week.

Oscar Zook and his mother returned from a three weeks visit with relatives at Yoncalla and Drain. Oscar had a fine time while he was gone and did considerable hunting. He helped in the slaughter of one deer but did not find that game very plentiful.

Carl Tetherow in a Ford going toward Independence was collided with by a car driven by C. Henkle, Friday night. Tetherow's car sustained most of the damage and had to be abandoned for the night. Such was the force of the contact that the Tetherow car was knocked to the side of the highway. As the boy was on his way to Independence to get Miss Arbuthnot who was to appear on the program of a basket social at Elkins, a new conveyance had to be secured and Miss Arbuthnot's part of the program was therefore considerably delayed. Miss Houx and sister of Independence accompanied her to Elkins.

Basket socials at Elkins are always successful and the one held Friday night was no exception to the rule. $65 was realized from the sale of baskets, the money to be used in playground apparatus, tables and records for the school talking machine. From 80 to 100 people were present. L. P. Gilmore officiated as auctioneer. High price for a box was $4. Beside Miss Arbuthnot's readings there were numerous other excellent numbers on the program consisting of music and readings.

The Warren Construction company has concluded that conditions are unfavorable to further work this winter and is laying off its crew of men this week.
