Most of the stores of Monmouth closed for the day Tuesday and our citizens were largely in evidence at the programs in Monmouth and Independence.

Mildred Winifred, the four month old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Arant of Oregon City died October 31st of pneumonia. The funeral was held at the home on November 2. Mr. and Mrs. Arant have many old friends in Monmouth who sympathize with them in their loss.

Rev. Swander, home secretary of the Christian church for Oregon was the speaker at the local church Sunday evening and made an eloquent plea for state work, there being several hundred communities in the state without regular religious services at all.

There being no special business to come up at this time and as it was a holiday, the common council did not hold a regular session Tuesday night but adjourned to Tuesday of next week.

The distribution of government food has progressed another notch. According to a late circular sent out, city officials are empowered to order in bulk and dispense to citizens at the government prices which means the same prices will prevail in small towns as do in Portland and the other distributing centers. Mayor Wolverson is acting to secure a supply of goods for Monmouth which will be of necessity bacon, roast and corned beef, hash and canned tomatoes.

Mrs. Bullock who underwent three operations in Portland last week, is reported as recovering nicely. Mrs. Stine took Mr. Bullock's place in the dormitory kitchen while the latter was absent and Miss Paradine Doughty is substituting for Mrs. Bullock.

Dr. Thompson is now making regular visits to twenty one Valley towns, in which he has scores of satisfied patrons. He takes every precaution known to Optical Science, to assure his patrons absolutely correct glasses.

He offers you the combined service of an optometrist with years of experience and that of a competent, practical optician. Consult him about your eyes. Friday, November 21. Local hotel all day. 3t

Rev. Pace is gradually putting more elements of community service into practice at the Maples as practical evidence of what may be expected later on. He has the library established and constantly growing in popularity. From one fourth to one half of the books of the library are constantly in circulation. Next Grange day the children of parents attending the Grange are to be entertained in the social hall. About the next move, Mr. Pace indicates, will be to knock out a partition or two and establish a reading room, and possibly a boys' club room. So the work is spreading as the needs increase.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Craven and daughter motored to Portland Saturday morning to take in the football game; returning home Sunday evening. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Rice, who visited their daughter Margaret and other relatives in Portland.

Mrs. J. Dornisife of Independence left last week for Los Angeles, California, where she will visit during the next six weeks with her husband who is an inmate of the soldiers' home at Sawtelle, a suburb of Los Angeles. Mr. Dornisife has been bed ridden for the past four years and is in the hospital at the home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stockholm returned last week from a visit with relatives at Hood River. Mrs. M. C. Carter, Mrs. Stockholm's sister and her small son Donald returned with them for a visit and their other son, Will Carter, who is attending O. A. C., came up from Corvallis to spend the week end.

Francis Arant, who is working in a bank and attending the university in Eugene, spent the first of the week with Monmouth relatives.

Mrs. A. M. Arant has for the past two weeks been in a Portland hospital undergoing treatment for stomach trouble.

The Man in the Dark

"You have 72 hrs. to wind up your affairs and leave. If you are still here then, your death is on your own head." Such was the night-riders' threat to the county agricultural agent in Albert Payson Terhune's great new story beginning next week in

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

"The Man in the Dark" will be just about the best mystery story you have ever read. It tells of one man's struggles against white caps and moonshiners, of lynching, kidnapping—of the love of a man and a girl.

Let me start your subscription with next week's issue of THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN, so you can read the whole of this absorbing mystery. For its fiction alone THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN is worth more than seven times its yearly subscription price; in a year it publishes at least five full-length novels, which in book form sell for $1.50 each. These in addition to 60 to 100 pages each week of the most intensely practical farm articles—which may well give you suggestions that will make or save you a hundred dollars.

OHIO'S GREAT STAR RANTING AGAIN

Captain "Chick" Harley of Ohio State grid team, is proving conclusively for all time that he is one of the greatest football players of his day. In 1916 Harley was selected All-American, fullback by Walter Camp, then went to war. Harley got away for a 55-yard run, beating Post's great Michigan team in his first big game this year.
