A Young Men's Christian Association was organized at Pendleton. John Lambirth heads the board of directors.
Huge cakes of ice, many of them the size of a boxcar, are floating past The Dalles, a serious menace to navigation.

The Deschutes county court has established a county library and will levy a one-half mill tax for its support.

The opening of the Columbia river highway from Portland to the Deschutes river is now a prospect for next fall.

With the opening last week of the Athens State bank, Umatilla county now has 14 banking institutions in operation.

A shipment of 32 instruments from the government for the use of the cadet band was received at the University of Oregon.

The two children of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Samuels were burned to death in a fire which destroyed the family home in Astoria.

The state board of fair directors will ask the legislature for $10,000 to repair damages done to buildings by the recent heavy fall of snow.

H. H. Pomeroy of the Oregon state fire marshal's office left for San Francisco, to attend the national conference of arson investigators.

Plans have been initiated by the Hood River county court for replacing five wooden bridges with permanent concrete structures this year.

A $100,000 corporation has been formed by leading citizens of Albany to do business under the name of the Merrill Lumber & Shingle company.

Woodburn, with 58.9 mills, and Mount Angel, with 22.7 mills, are the Marion county towns having the highest and lowest tax levies for the year 1920.

The total enrollment at Oregon Agricultural college for the year was brought up to 3220 Wednesday night with the registration of 311 new students.

A total of $162,000 is included for the Indian training school at Chemawa in the Indian appropriation bill, which passed the house of representatives Friday.

Thirty-four counties of Oregon and 20 states are represented in the student body of the University of Oregon, according to the records of the registrar's office.

Albany Creamery association directors made a price of 74 cents for December butterfat, the highest returns the producers have ever received from their product.

The high schools of Albany, Salem and Silverton will meet in triangular debate on January 30 for the opening series in the Oregon High School Debating league.

The annual report of the city recorder of North Bend shows that 68 arrests were made in that city in 1919. Of this number 26 were for violation of the prohibition law.

D. E. Richards, assistant professor of animal husbandry at the Oregon Agricultural college, has accepted an appointment as county agricultural agent for Lake county.

The city council of Gold Hill has passed an ordinance repealing and amending several license ordinances, which will tax nearly every business and occupation in the city.

A permanent organization to handle matters affecting the ex-service men of Umatilla county is planned by the American Legion posts at Milton, Weston, Pendleton and Hermiston.

Baker led all the counties of Oregon in the value of minerals produced in 1919. It was followed by Grant, Umatilla, Lane, Malheur, Wallowa, Curry and Wheeler in the order named.

C. H. Gram, state labor commissioner, is investigating the contents of a letter received from Senator S. A. Hughes, in which it was alleged that complaint had been made that certain contractors on Oregon highways had violated the laws by making their employees work more than eight hours.

The strength of Malheur county in a financial way was well demonstrated when the $100,000 issue of road bonds sold at practically $104 for each $100 of five and a half per cent bonds.

Charles H. Collins, 40 years old, a switchman on the O.-W. R. & N., committed suicide at his home in Pendleton by hanging himself to the door of the kitchen with a bathrobe cord.

Records at the University of Oregon show that 65 per cent of the male students earned part of their expense money by outside work, while 25 per cent were almost totally self-supporting.

The Dalles has an epidemic of mumps and smallpox, with more than 250 cases of mumps and at least twenty-five cases of smallpox, according to City Health Officer Dr. Fred Thompson.

The Wasco county court has given its official sanction to the Seufert-Deschutes link of the Columbia river highway, which will follow the river grade survey as prepared by the state highway engineers.

Benjamin Jay, 32, a farmer of Blachly, in the Lake creek valley, 35 miles west of Eugene, was accidentally shot and killed by his nephew, Roy Reed, aged 23, while they were out hunting ducks on Lake creek.

Each county school superintendent in Oregon was named county thrift director by J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of public instruction. Mr. Churchill is state thrift director and the naming of county directors will relieve him of considerable work.

Sportmen of the upper Hood river valley have petitioned the Hood River Game Protective association to sponsor a movement to have the upper reaches of Hood river closed to fishing until June 1. The two extra months of closed season are sought in order that the fish may not be disturbed while spawning.

Professor C. A. Reed, chief of the bureau of nut investigation of the department of agriculture, has promised Senator McNary that one of the department experts will go to Oregon early in February to conduct a survey and investigation of walnut and filbert culture, and that $1000 will be set aside for experimental work in that state.

To prevent the invasion of cougars which have been seen lately in the Eight Mile and Fifteen Mile districts, the Wasco County Livestock association at a meeting at The Dalles, took measures to rid the section of the animals. Hunters and trappers will be hired to kill the cougars. Formerly cougars have killed much stock in certain parts of Wasco county.

The water supply of the city of Corvallis is menaced by logging operations in the coast mountains in the vicinity of the source of supply. To prevent the drying up of the streams that furnish the water strong efforts are being made to transfer quite a large area of the timber lands in the Oregon & California railroad grant to the Siuslaw national forest so that the land will never be logged off.

There were 33 fires in Oregon, exclusive of Portland during the month of December, according to a report prepared by A. S. Barber, state insurance commissioner. Klamath Falls suffered heaviest of any town in the state, the aggregate fire losses there for December amounting to $40,000. Total losses from fires in December showed a marked decrease when compared with those of the previous month.
