

PROGRAM
"The Yokohama Maid"

Cast

TAKAEI, The Herald of Kyboho, Frank D. Pimm
MUVON YU, A Policeman, Richard Cayser
AH NO, A Chinese Laundryman from U. S. A., David Oleman
FATEDDO, The Mayor of Kybosho, L. P. Gilmore
KNOGUD, His Secretary, Fleming D. Oleman
HARRY COURTSEASE, An American Lawyer, Frank D. Pimm
O SING-A-SONG, A Japanese Heiress, Mildred Jones
KISSIMEE, Her Companion, Lucile Dunbar
TUNG WAGA, An Elderly Nurse, Sadie Haveley
BILLA, American Tourist, Ruth M. Johnson
SHELLA, An American Tourist, Nathalie Selling
CHORUS, Japanese Men and Maidens, Misses Sauvain, Straus,
Driver, Fellows, M. Wilson, Robinson, Holmes, Templeton,
Bartow, J. Dunlap, Curtright, M. Dunlop, R. M. Johnson,
Shotwell, MacDonaid, Lewis, Dilley, Melis, R. A. Brown,
Fuller, Bragg, Booth, Z. Landon, Hager, Fisher, Hedrick,
Selling, Fleming, McLelland, Hattan, Conklin, Spores,
Thompson, Mrs. Branson.
Messrs Penney, F. Oleman, D. Oleman, Moreland, Cayser,
Pimm, Nitzel.

Act I. Garden of O Sing-a-Song's House in the suburbs of Yokohama. Afternoon

(Two Years Elapse)

Act II. Same as Act I. Afternoon

Time—The Present

Musical Numbers

ACT I

OVERTURE

Prolog—The Herald's Song, "Listen, O Ye People" Frank D. Pimm

Chorus, "O Sing-a-Song is Sweet Sixteen"

Solo, "All Wrinkled is the Yellow Cheek" Sadie Haveley

Chorus, "Sing a Song as Sing-a-Song Approaches"

Duet, "When Maiden Falls in Love" Lucile Dunbar

Fleming D. Oleman

Solo, "When a Maiden's Sweet Sixteen" Mildred Jones

Duet, "I Shall Be Proud" Mildred Jones

L. P. Gilmore

Finale, "Good Bye"

ACT II

Opening Chorus, "Waiting Expectantly"

Recit and Solo, "Attention, Ye" Richard Cayser

Chorus, "Here Comes the Mayor"

Solo, "Saki Tong" David Oleman

Solo, "Back Again To Old Japan" Mildred Jones

Solo, "Japanese Nodding Doll" Nathalie Selling

Duet, "Oh, What is a Maiden To Do To-Day" Mildred Jones

L. P. Gilmore

Solo, "A Heart Once Went" Frank D. Pimm

Quartette, "And Thus You See" Misses Jones, Selling, Johnson

Mr. Pimm

Chorus, "Our Hearts Are Wrung"

Trio, "I Am The Mayoress Of Dollarsville" Miss Jones

Messrs. Gilmore, Pimm

Finale, "Wedding Bells Will Soon Be Ringing"

ARGUMENT

The story of "The Yokohama Maid" opens in Kybosho, a suburb of Yokohama, where the guests are assembling to celebrate the sixteenth birthday of O Sing-a-Song. Fattedo, the Mayor of Kybosho informs her that she can inherit her dead father's fortune only through a marriage with him on her eighteenth birthday, for so the will decrees. She is in despair but with the optimism of youth hopes to find a way out of the dilemma. Knogude, the Mayor's secretary, is hopelessly in love with O Sing-a-Song, whose companion, Kissimee, is quite as much enamoured of Knogud. Fattedo wishes his future wife to be the most talked of woman in Japan and so instructs her to visit the United States to complete her education there. The end of Act I sees her departure for America accompanied by Kissimee and Tung Waga, her old nurse.

Two years elapse, and the travellers return. Fattedo arranges for an immediate wedding ceremony. Just as matters approach a climax, a young American, Harry Courtcase, appears upon the scene. He announces that O Sing-a-Song is already married, and to him. Fattedo, disconcerted, retorts that by the terms of the will, O Sing-a-Song is now a pauper. An argument over the terms of the will ensue, and in the end Courtcase proves that the terms of the will have not been violated, that O Sing-a-Song is legally his bride and heiress of her father's wealth.

BACHELOR TELLS OUR WOMEN HOW TO COOK

A man tells American housewives how to run their kitchens. And moreover—he is a bachelor. But he is doing such a good job of it—that even the best housewives in the land—those in rural districts—are ever demanding his new ideas. It is C. F. Langworthy, who for more than 25 years has conducted the office of home economics in the Department of Agriculture. Photo shows Langworthy and part of one of the laboratory kitchens.

Items of Interest

Dallas people feel certain the new census will show their city to have a population of 3,000.

$4,000 was appropriated by the recent legislature for repairs for the Dallas armory.

The annual meeting of the school officers convention is to be held in Dallas February 7.

Tobacco prices are soaring the cost of the raw product being nearly four times as high as it was before the war.

Frank Fluke has accepted the management of the McLaughlin hop ranch near Independence.

The Huston market in Independence is being moved to another location on Main street where their quarters will be very much improved.

Kenneth Arrel of Independence expects shortly to return to his former home in Minnesota with the expectation of remaining there.

The Grand Worthy Matron of the Eastern Star for Oregon will visit the Independence chapter, February 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Smith of Independence are home from a pleasure trip to California.

A man named Newton has taken an option on the Barham warehouse in Dallas and plans to start a cannery in that city.

Chas. Atwater, who recently embarked in the shoe business in Airlie has sued his wife, Clarissa Atwater for divorce. The latter was a war bride, the marriage having taken place at LatGrande, and since his return the husband has heard nothing of her and knows nothing of her present whereabouts.

H. A. Joslin of the power company was recently elected president of the Dallas commercial club and W. V. Fuller, former president has been made secretary to succeed Mrs. C. N. Bilyeu, resigned.

E. J. Himes was recently elected city engineer of Dallas. O. P. Chase is marshal, W. G. Vassal, city treasurer and E. F. Coad, city attorney, all chosen at a recent meeting of the Dallas council.

The county clerk warns people who live in election precincts which have been changed in their boundaries recently to register anew a proceeding that is necessary because otherwise the records would not show the residence of the voters affected. As none of the Monmouth precincts were changed this registration edict will not apply to local citizens.

Mrs. Lottie Eoyd a former resident of Independence died recently at Sacramento, California.

The prospects of a boom in hops and also the natural return of citizens to the rural sections which is now taking place is brightening things up in Independence. Nine vacancies are to be filled with new business establishments there during January and February

Mrs. Paul Rohl of Sheridan Wyoming and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bacon of Portland former residents are visiting in Independence.

Every mother with a child between the age of six months and six years is asked to notify the secretary of the Marion County Children's Bureau, Mrs. F. Von Eschen, 1775 Court street, Salem, who will mail them registration cards for the February Clinic of the Bureau to be held in the Salem Commercial Club, February 19, from half past one o'clock to half past three. This is the third clinic which the Bureau has sponsored. Much interest has been manifested in the Better Babies movement in the County, mothers in various towns eagerly accepting the opportunity of having their children examined by specialists for only a fee of twenty five cents. The various departments include eye, ear, nose, throat, mental and physical examinations.

Only thirty five children are accepted at a clinic, making it imperative for those wishing to register children to notify the secretary early.

Big Mens' Clothing and Furnishing Goods Sale

at the

SALEM WOOLEN MILLS STORE

Notwithstanding a seeming violation of business principles in making reductions of price, in view of the staple price and the fixed high prices new prevailing with no prospect of an immediate decline,

This Big Store and Distributor of Merchandise will open up on February fourth with one of their SPECIAL SALES for ten days, ending February fourteenth

It is needless to say anything about the character of the merchandise we sell as everyone in Polk and Marion counties knows the high reputation of our goods.

More details will follow in next week's paper. Look for our ad.

SALEM WOOLEN MILLS STORE

C. P. BISHOP, Prop.

EVERY FAMILY IN POLK AND MARION COUNTIES A PATRON

Yes,
it's toasted

YOU know how much toasting improves bread. Makes it taste good. Of course—more flavor.

Same with tobacco—especially Kentucky Burley.

Buy yourself a package of Lucky Strike cigarettes. Notice the toasted flavor. Great! Nothing like it. The real Burley cigarette.

Guaranteed by
The American Tobacco Co.

Want Something?

Advertise for it in these columns

NO newspaper can succeed without advertising, therefore we solicit the patronage of our readers for those who by their advertising help to make this paper possible.

Do You

Use Good Paper When You Write? We Can Print Anything and Do It Right.