The Royal House of Israel and Court of King David

In which will be included a presentation of the Jewish Tabernacle and pantomime of many popular songs. To be given at the Christian church Saturday night, March 27. Descriptive—The Royal House of Israel will assemble. King David and his court will appear after being seated on the throne will deliver the King's message of state. A representation of the Jewish Tabernacle will be erected on the platform. This tabernacle will be 18x6x6 and young men will enter therein and perform the duties devolving upon the priests.

Light the Golden Candle Stick and administer at the Sacred Altar.

Two little girls will act as cherubim over the Mercy Seat.

Several special songs will be sung and presented in Pantomime as is shown by the outline of the program. The last scene will be the Ten Virgins who sleep while the bridegroom tarries. As the bridegroom enters the five wise virgins enter singing but the foolish are denied admission.

This production is Scriptural and will not only please but be very instructive. Evangelist Gregg will give the address while the Priests are performing their priestly duties.

The admission to this entertainment will be free, but a freewill offering will be taken sometime during the program.

Revival Progress

The revival meetings in the Christian church are attracting much interest. Good audiences greet the evangelists every night. Several conversions have already been received. The following subjects are to be discussed within the next few evenings. The New Birth. The Great Memorial. Repentance. The Ideal Man. The Ideal Woman. The Church of Christ and its Necessity. The Devil and His Angels. On Saturday night the special service will be given setting forth the old Jewish worship at the Tabernacle. Announcement will be found elsewhere.

Fraternal Order Service

Evangelist Samuel Gregg has invited the Fraternal Orders of Odd Fellows to attend services in the Christian church next Sunday night at which time he will deliver an address on fraternity. Mr. Gregg is an Odd Fellow of many years and will have many things of interest to say. Prof. J. H. Thomas will sing. The public generally invited.

LEARN HOW To Judge An Investment

A simple and effective method for testing the merit of investments is presented in our new illustrated circular which we will send free on request.

This circular also tells the story of Mountain States Power Company and the reasons why we desire to increase our list of profit-sharing investors among our customers.

Even though you may not wish to join us as an investor, you will be interested in this piece of literature, which we will be glad to send with our compliments.

Read it and you will understand why we want you with us as a financial partner and how we can put your money to work advantageously in the extensions and improvements necessary to meet increased demands for service.

Save and Invest At the Same Time

Our Partial Payment Plan is an ideal way for saving and investing.

Lay by a few dollars a month and advancing years will have lost their dread. $5.00 is enough to start. Interest is allowed on payments. No difficulty or red tape.

Organizations performing useful and necessary work honestly and efficiently conducted, with a record of fair dealing with the consumer on one hand, and the investor on the other, are the ones whose investment securities appeal to caution and common sense.

Mountain States Power Company supplies the ever growing demand for indispensable services in several of the most productive sections of the Pacific Northwest.
