Fred Carver, 11, and Herbert Doyle, 15, who ran away from the boys' and girls' aid society home in Portland Monday, walked into the police station at Salem and surrendered. They said they were hungry and wished to return to Portland.

Testimony and evidence relating to the train wreck at Bertha station May 9, which resulted in the death of nine persons and the injury of 49 others, will be taken at a hearing by the Oregon public service commission in Portland Monday, May 24.

Complete investigation of the sugar situation as it affects the entire state of Oregon will be made by Hall B.
Lusk, chief assistant to United States Attorney Humphreys, who left last week for San Francisco. Mr. Lusk will be in California for at least a week.

Daniel McCarthy, 102 years of age and the oldest patient at the state hospital at Salem, is dead. He was committed to the old Hawthorne institution in Portland in 1868 and remained there until 1883, when, with other patients, he was transferred to Salem.

The Dalles will build a civic auditorium at a cost of $125,000. This was decided when citizens went to the polls and gave the project a majority of 154 votes. Six hundred and twenty-four votes were cast. General obligation bonds to the extent of $50,000 also were voted.

By defeating both the Marshfield and Salem teams in the finals of the Oregon High School Debating league tournament, the Corvallis high school debating team won the championship of the state for 1920 and possession for one year of the University of Oregon cup.

Business men and college students are urged in a letter received by Will G. Steel, secretary of the Eugene chamber of commerce, from the secretary of agriculture, to spend their summer vacations working on farms in order to increase the food production of the country this year.

Twenty-seven bridges and two overhead railroad crossings on the route of the Pacific highway between Salem and the California line, for which contracts have been awarded by the state highway department, have been completed during the past week, are under construction or contemplated within the next month.

Percy Cupper, state engineer, will leave this week for Sacramento, where he will confer with W. F. McClure, state engineer of California, with regard to the proposed appropriation of water from Warner lake in southern Oregon for the irrigation of lands embraced in the Surprise valley project in the northern California.

The last step to insure prosperity for the Rogue river valley within a year, with irrigation of 10,000 acres of its best orchard and farm lands, was taken when contracts were signed by the board of directors of the Medford irrigation district and the Rogue River Canal company for the sale of $1,250,- 000 of district 6 per cent gold bonds at 99 and for the complete installation of a system of irrigation to be completed in time for the season of 1921.

That black volcanic cinders, inexhaustible deposits of which are found in the immediate vicinity of Bend, may be used in place of gravel for the state highway commission for some time, is the belief of District Highway Engineer Stebbins. Mr.
Stebbins has sent samples of the cinders to the office of the state engineer in the hope that they may be found satisfactory for this purpose.

Bonds issued by the Grants Pass, Medford and Ochoec irrigation district will be certified by state irrigation securities commission as soon as the records of each project are completed and filed with the state engineer, according to a decision reached at a conference held in Salem. The Grants Pass district, in Josephine county, has voted bonds in the sum of $184,000, the Medford district $1,250,000 and the Ochoec district $100,000. The three projects are now under development.

The state highway commission has a legal right to make local changes in the roads to eliminate curves or improvements, but it is not empowered by law to abandon routes already established by the legislature, according to a decision handed down by Judge G. F. Skipworth of Lane county, in which he held against the commission in the case brought by S. H. Rockhill of Riddle to restrain the state from proceeding with the construction of the so-called Canyonville cutoff section of the Pacific highway.

The state board of control, acting upon statements contained in telegrams received from the three members of the state highway commission, indicating that there was urgent need of bonds with which to meet obligations already incurred by the state through the execution of contracts for post and paid bonds in Oregon, disposed of $1,- 250,000 bonds under the so-called general aid road law passed at the special session of the legislature last January. The bonds were purchased by the Lumbermen Trust company of Portland, which submitted the most satisfactory bid of $9.09 in behalf of the Continental & Commercial Trust & Savings bank of Chicago.

wives, from all sections of the state, gathered in Salem for the nineteenth annual convention of the Oregon State association of master plumbers.

Will R. King of Ontario, former democratic national committeeman for Oregon, has resigned as chief counsel for the United States reclamation service, to become effective June 15.

Shortage of gasoline is becoming acute at Klamath Falls and may result in the closing down of all sawmills which are supplied with logs direct from the woods by motor truck.

A movement has been started among Marion county taxpayers to introduce a bill in the legislature at its next session prohibiting the catching of mountain trout during the spawning season.
The state desert land board will ask congress to extend the contract between the state and federal governments relative to the Walker Basin irrigation project in Deschutes country for a period of 10 years.

Statistics show, according to the war department statement, that Oregon's enlisted strength for its national guard is 2152 men, of which 1346 have been enlisted. During the month ending

May 1 there were enlisted in Oregon two companies of infantry, two companies of coast artillery, one company of engineers with 117 men and four officers, and one quartermaster detachment of 24 men, composed mostly of commissioned officers.

TEN WAYS TO PREVENT LOSS

First, Select Pure Breeds That Lay
More and Larger Eggs—Collect Eggs Frequently.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

1. Selecting pure breeds that lay more and larger eggs, such as the White Leghorns, Wyandottes, Plymouth Rocks, Rhode Island Reds, Orpingtons, etc.
2. Giving better care, food, and shelter, with dry, clean, vermin-proof nests.
3. Confining males except in breeding season.
4. Collecting eggs frequently, especially in hot or muggy weather.
5. Storing eggs in a dry, clean, cool place.
6. Using small and dirty eggs at home.
7. Marketing frequently, with protection at all times from heat.
8. Selling for cash on a basis of size and quality, "loss off" instead of "case count."
9. Using an attractive package.
10. Combining all elements as a matter of economy.

CHAMBERLAIN'S TABLETS

THIS is just what you need, madam. Many women who were troubled with indigestion, a sallow, muddy skin, indicating biliousness and habitual constipation, have been permanently cured by the use of Chamberlain's Tablets. Before using these tablets they felt miserable and despondent.
Now they are cheerful and happy and relish their meals. Try them. They only cost a quarter.
