It's the Fixtures that Make the Silo

Compare Our Fixtures with Others

There's a big difference in the "fixtures" you get at the prices asked for different silos.

Compare fixtures when you buy a silo. It is the fixtures that make a silo. Durability, security and stability are determined by the anchorage, the size, quality and number of cables, hoops, lugs and staples. Convenience and ease of getting at your silage for use are determined by the door and ladder construction.

Many silos are priced without hinged doors or ladders.

In other words, you pay as "extras" for necessary conveniences without which your silo is incomplete. Notwithstanding our lower price, we include more and better fixtures than many who ask more for their silos. In some cases we supply more of a given item than others, as in anchorage cable. In others, our fixtures are stronger or better in whatever vital point determines their value. Keep this ad and check our fixtures as described above, with those offered by other silos. Don't pay more and get less, or buy half a silo when you can get a complete one.

Wiggles Way Out of Jail For 180th Time in Life

Roy Dickerson, charged with aiding in the robbery of a bank at Girard, Ala., made what is said to have been his one hundred and eightieth escape from jail when he used a crude key on his cell lock in the city prison at Los Angeles, Cal., climbed up a ventilator shaft and fled.

Dickerson's wife, who was in jail with her husband, said he formerly was a vaudeville performer, making a specialty of freeing himself from handcuffs and other restraints. She told the police he had escaped 180 times and that he never had been imprisoned successfully longer than two months.

Dickerson's cell-mate was found asleep after the escape. He told the guards he had not heard Dickerson's movements.

END YOUNGER SET PARTIES

Parents Require Young People to Go Home Early and Will Censor Amusements and Clothes.

Kansas City, Mo.—An organization of mothers made up of society matrons in Kansas City is to be formed to put an end to the "wild ways" of the young folk in that city.

The organization plans to have the boys and girls sign a pledge not to stay out after a curfew hour that is to be agreed upon between the parents and the young people. The blasé manners the young folk have assumed, and stories of erotic affairs held by them led to the organized effort by their parents. Street and evening clothes for young misses also are to be censored.
