Don't let a smooth tongued stranger persuade you that there is any kind of printing the Herald Print Shop can not do.

If you have pride in the farm that gives you a home and a living why not show it by naming the farm and doing your corresponding on printed stationery? Ask us about it.

Here's where we call a spade just that

THE POET says a rose.
BY ANY other name,
WOULD SMELL as sweet,
AND THAT'S all right,
BUT CALLING,
SOMETHING ELSE a rose,
WON'T CHANGE its smell,
OF COURSE not,
AND I'M not knocking,
BUT JUST telling you,
RIGHT OUT,
THAT THERE are only
THREE GRADES,
OF TURKISH tobacco,
FIRST, GOOD Turkish,
WHICH IS mighty good,
AND ALSO expensive,
AND SECOND.

POOR TURKISH tobacco,
WHICH IS less expensive,
AND NOT so good,
AND THIRD, tobacco,
CALLED TURKISH, which,
NEVER SAW Turkey,
BUT GREW thousands,
OF MILES away,
AND DOESN'T even,
TASTE LIKE Turkish,
AND IT'S the good Turkish,
THAT'S REALLY from Turkey,
THAT YOU get,
IN THE cigarettes,
THAT SATISFY.

OUR resident buyers in Turkey are experts. They know we want the best—and we get it. And the same with Domestic leaf. Blend them together—by that can't-be-copied method—and you get a smoke that actually does "satisfy."

COULD GET NO HELP SO FARMS AT 82 THE "HYPNOTIC EYE" OF CARPENTIER

With his farm property, valued at more than a quarter million dollars, facing neglect, Louis Shoger of DuPage county, Illinois, 82 years old, is back into work harness and is setting a lively pace. He was forced to it through the farm labor shortage.

This new American photograph taken of the French heavyweight champ, Georges Carpentier, shows best perhaps what is called his "hypnotic eye." Carpentier is credited with dazing his opponent through his intense gaze. Carpentier's manager is shown whispering instructions to him. Carpentier meets Battling Levinsky in New Jersey early in October in his first American appearance.

COULDN'T FOOL THIS KID.

Johnny paid his first visit to a farm the other day. All his life he had lived in the heart of a great city, and when he suddenly came in sight of a haystack, he stopped and gazed earnestly at what appeared to him a new brand of architecture.

"Say, Mr. Smith," he remarked to the farmer, pointing to the haystack, "why don't they have doors and windows in it?"

"Doors and windows!" smiled the farmer. "That ain't a house, Johnny, that's hay."

"Don't try to josh me, Mr. Smith!" was the scornful rejoinder. "Don't you suppose I know that hay don't grow in lumps like that?"

Suspicious.

Hubby—Yes, dear, bronze is a very tough and lasting material. Why do you ask?

Young Bride—Nothing, only Farmer Jones writes that he is sending you one of his finest bronze turkeys.

YOUNG PHILOSOPHY.
"Eyes know, I think teacher can see behind her."
"Well, she said her eyes was going back on her."

Smile and Sneer.

A smile is like a blossom tossed Upon the path of Spring;
A sneer is like the sudden frost That leaves it withering.

What's the Use?

Connie (remonstrating)—But, my dear Winnie, I haven't said a word.
Winnie—Nevertheless, I know what you were thinking, and there's no use saying you weren't, for I wouldn't believe you if you did.

His Job.

"The new man, who is an ex-pugilist, wants to know what special duty in the hospital you want him to do."

"Let him attend to the insomnia patients. He is just the man to put them to sleep."

A Professional Secret.

New Cashier—The boss says this is a new style cash register and that you'd show me how to work it.
Old Cashier—I'll show you how it works, but I won't show you how to work it.

The flush of youth soon passes from the face. The spells of fancy from the mind depart; The form may lose its symmetry and grace. But time can claim no victory o'er the heart.

EVERY-DAY LUNCHEONS.

It is in the every-day food where we need variety. Anyone may create some dainty for an occasion, but it takes real brain-work to keep going every day and avoid monotony.

Frizzled Oysters.—Put half a cupful of sweet fat into the frying pan, add three well-beaten eggs, mixed with a cupful of cracker crumbs. Add two cupfuls of oysters, with their liquor; season with salt and pepper and cook ten minutes, stirring constantly.

Cabbage Salad.—Select a small, heavy, round head of cabbage. Cut a slice off the top and scoop out the inside, leaving a thin shell. Shred the cabbage with half as much celery; mix with a highly seasoned boiled dressing; add a few nuts and fill the shell. The shell may be used to hold the frizzled oysters and the salad served on lettuce leaves.

Spoon Bread.—Take two cupfuls of sweet milk, add one cupful of cornmeal and cook until it makes a smooth mush; add two cupfuls of buttermilk, half a teaspoonful of soda, one teaspoonful of salt and three well-beaten eggs; mix well and bake in a well-buttered pudding dish. Serve from the dish.

Baked Pears.—Peel and core pears and fill the cavity with sugar, butter and a bit of grated lemon rind. Place in a baking dish, pour over water, add sugar and the juice of a lemon; bake until tender, basting often with the sirup. Boil down the sirup and pour over the fruit. Chill before serving.

Corn Flake Dainties.—Take two cupfuls of corn flakes, one cupful of coconut, one egg, well beaten; add a teaspoonful of vanilla, a speck of salt and a cupful of sugar. Mix well and drop by small teaspoonfuls on a baking sheet. Bake until a golden brown. Chopped pecans, peanuts, hickory nuts or any kind of nut may be used in place of the coconut.

Shelled pecans, browned in a bit of butter and dusted with a dash of cayenne pepper and salt, make a very dainty dish.

It's the Fixtures that Make the Silo

Compare Our Fixtures with Others

There's a big difference in the "fixtures" you get at the prices asked for different silos. In other words, you pay as "extras" for necessary conveniences without which your silo is incomplete. Notwithstanding our lower price, we include more and better fixtures than many who ask more for their silos. In some cases we supply more of a given item than others, as in anchorage cable. In others, our fixtures are stronger or better in whatever vital point determines their value. Keep this ad and check our fixtures as described above, with those offered by other silos. Don't pay more and get less, or buy half a silo when you can get a complete one.
