FRIENDS! NEIGHBORS! COUNTRYMEN!

Lend me your ears! I come to pass the town of ours.
 I come to ask your loyalty to it.
 I want to interest you in its solidarity, in the solidarity of all the people of this community to the end that each one of us shall be more prosperous and happier.
 Up at the corner the other day I overheard one of OUR FOLKS relate with much self-satisfaction the fact that he had just received a piece of goods from a big city mail order house, which, he claimed, cost him a few nickels less than he could buy it in this good old town of ours.
 An editor's shakles are hard-earned, but I have one to spare to bet that this neighbor really lost money if he figured on the charges and unseen costs. He paid the freight, whichever way it was shipped. He bought on faith, and faith at a distance is not a sensible thing these days of shocky material and incompetent if high-priced, workmanship. He had no chance to first examine the goods contained in his order. If the goods are damaged, he must return them to a distance and take chances on getting his money back after a long period, and perhaps after long quibbling. All this takes time—days and weeks—whereas at home he would never have picked a damaged, or poor, or distasteful piece of goods.

Let us have loyalty!
 Loyalty to our town is good personal business to every soul in the community. Every dollar you spend here makes the man you spend it with the more able to spend money with you for the things you have to sell, whether you sell livestock, dry-goods, potatoes, butter or the labor of your hands.
 Sending money to the big city, except where it can't be avoided, is helping the big city and making the whole people of the big city that much more prosperous. Let's keep the money in our own town and make ourselves more prosperous. The big town never does anything for our community save to milk it.
 This town and neighborhood is our home. Here we are bringing up our families and educating them. Here is where our happiness lies. Here is also where our duty lies—a duty to do everything in our power to advance the interests of our home and community.
 This editor believes that he can serve his home community in no better way than by urging every man and woman to patronize the merchants of this town. Therefore, beginning today, this newspaper will print a series of important articles on loyalty to our town—loyalty to ourselves. We believe that every subscriber will find them interesting, worthwhile reading.
 Yours truly,

The Monmouth Herald

Two Aged Men Answer Last Call

Hiram A. Newman, an elderly resident of this city, died at the home of his son Charles H. Newman on Monday of this week. Death was caused by the infirmities of old age. Funeral services were held at the residence on Wednesday at 2 p. m., with Rev. E. B. Pace officiating. Burial was in the K. P. cemetery.

Mr. Newman was 88 years of age, having been born at Plymouth, Mich., April 24, 1832. He was one of a family of thirteen children all of whom have passed on before him except one, O. N. Newman of Billings, Montana, who is two years his senior. He was married to Rachel Bogert, September 14, 1854. She died ten years ago. They are survived by two children, Charles H. Newman of Monmouth and Mrs. Evaline Taylor of Brighton, Mich. Mr. Newman came to Monmouth about nineteen years ago. He was respected by all who knew him.

Samuel Hamilton was born January 1, 1844, in Hawkins county, Tenn. He served apprenticeship in the tanner's and harness maker's trade during the Civil war and followed the trade for many years. He was married to Minerva Smith, who with seven of their children has passed on before. He and his wife in early life, became members of the Baptist church. Mr. Hamilton came to Oregon with his family in 1904. Five children, two sisters and two brothers are left to mourn his loss. He passed away Friday, July 16 and was buried in the K. P. cemetery Monday morning, Pastor E. B. Pace conducting the service.

LEADS U. S. SHOOTERS IN OLYMPIC

Perhaps no class of American sportsmen guard their honor with more zeal than trap shooters. This is the man called upon to defend that title in the coming 1920 Olympic games at Antwerp, Belgium. It is Jay Clary, Jr., of Worcester, Mass., who will captain the American team.

which will be used on some of its products, especially on dried and canned goods, is FirLand, and a third name that will be used is TruWest. These names are now being registered. California has capitalized the sun. Northwestern fruits are of superior quality due to a happy combination of soil and climate. In every valley of Oregon especially in the spring and fall, thin veils and banks of fog and mist drift down against the hills. It is a scene that every Oregonian is familiar with. Oregonians are often afraid to mention the fact that we have a little rain and mist occasionally. This mist however, is one of the greatest assets of the country west of the Cascades and contributes to its richness, its great output, and the high quality of its fruits. Hence MistLand seems to be a very appropriate name.
