Biliousness

WHEN you have a bilious attack your liver fails to perform its functions. You become constipated. The food you eat ferments in your stomach instead of digesting. This inflames the stomach and causes nausea, vomiting and a terrible headache. Take Chamberlain's Tablets. They will tone up your liver, clean out your stomach and you will soon be as well as ever. There is nothing better.

Hits the Nail on the Head When He Says—

"'Tis Better to Add a Wing to Your House Than to Wish You Had More Room"

Living in cramped, crowded quarters makes one irritable, dissatisfied and uncongenial. If you really need or want more room, you will not rest easy until you have it. Then why not add a wing to the house now and make the space you want?

Everything for Buildings

We can furnish all the material you need for the addition to your home—or to your barn, garage, etc. And we can give you helpful suggestions while planning the change.

Our experience covers many fields and should save you money—just as our prices are figured to do so.

OREGON NEWS NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST

Principal Events of the Week Briefly Sketched for Information of Our Readers.

Foreign imports received at Portland during the month of June amounted to $280,883.

Paving work has begun on the seven mile section of the Pacific highway north of Jefferson.

Benton county now has 46 threshing outfits. From present indications the crop will be the best in years.

Increased rates are allowed the Newberg Telephone company by an order of the public service commission.

Forest fires reported by the airplane patrol of the forest service totaled 33 during the latter half of July.

At a meeting of the state highway commission in Portland, August 24, bids will be opened on $1,500,000 state highway bonds.

J. C. Nelson, an Oregon pioneer, died at his home in Newberg at the age of 83. With his parents he located in the Chehalis valley in 1845.

The first unit of the Langell valley irrigation district in Klamath county has made application to the state to approve a bond issue of $197,000.

Oregon has a population in 1920 of 783,285, according to census figures, which is a gain of 110,520 or 16.4 per cent over the 1910 figures of 672,765.

Fred Peterson, 75, a native of Denmark, was burned to death when his cabin on the Mohawk river, 15 miles northeast of Eugene, was destroyed by fire.

W. I. Butters of Allegany has been held to the grand jury in Coos county on the charge of selling rocks for chittim bark to improve the weight of the bark.

Monday, September 6, Labor day, has been selected by Hood River as the date for formal celebration of the opening of the completely paved Columbia River highway.

Wheat harvest is under way in Morrow county and the grain is of first-class quality. The yield is a fair average although many fields were injured by the hot weather.

Oregon is suffering from a shortage of librarians, according to Miss Corbetta Marvin, state librarian, who has a list of eight important posts in the state that should be filled.

Notwithstanding the gasoline shortage, the number of automobiles visiting Crater lake so far this summer has exceeded the number that visited the resort during the entire season of 1919.

Approximately 95,000 motor vehicles are registered in Oregon, according to a statement made at the office of the secretary of state. This is one car for about every eight persons in Oregon.

The Fruit Growers' league of Medford has opened an employment bureau with the object of cooperating with other fruit growers in the allocation of pickers throughout the valley.

The public service commission has issued orders granting service rate increases to the Deschutes Telephone company of Clackamas county and C. A. Bradford telephone lines in Grant county.

During the fiscal year ending June 30, 580 dentists were licensed to practice in Oregon. Of these, 184 were non-resident. The licenses of 81 dentists were revoked because of non-payment of fees.

July was an exceptionally dry month in Astoria and the lower Columbia river district, according to the records in the local weather observer's office. The precipitation for the month was 3 of an inch.

The special committee of state legislators appointed to investigate the state game and fish commission will meet in Portland August 13 to hear anyone who has a complaint to make against the commission.

While testing out a forest service radio outfit at Eugene, human voices were picked up by the instruments. It was learned that the voices came from Portland through a wireless telephone apparatus in that city.

Fire destroyed the Strange Shingle company's mill, four miles from the city limits of Portland on the Linnton road, and burned four dwellings, four bunkhouses and a boarding house, with a total loss of about $60,000.

The Klamath Falls council has decided not to remove dice and card games from pool rooms and other public places but will amend existing ordinances by providing for revocation of license in case gambling is allowed.

All organization commanders of the National guard of Oregon have been authorized by Adjutant-General White to suspend drills during the harvest season so that guardsmen may help gather the Oregon fruit and grain crop.

Attractions of boat races, automobile races, a carnival and the biggest agricultural, horticultural and industrial exhibit of many years will feature this year's Wasco county fair to be held at The Dalles October 4, 5, 6 and 7.

The mutilated body of Carl McCoy, 19, of Cottage Grove, was found on the Southern Pacific railroad track near the station in Sutherlin. He apparently had met death accidentally by being run over in getting off of a night train.

Fire protection at Roseburg and Medford is declared inadequate by G. W. Stokes, an investigator for the state fire marshal's department. In Roseburg Stokes found only 63 hydrants. There should be twice that number, he says.

What is said to be the largest still yet captured in Oregon was raided near Newberg by federal revenue officers who seized 150 gallons of corn moonshine whisky and 800 gallons of corn mash. The still was said to have a capacity of 100 gallons a day.

Phillip Ott, 45, a farmer of Hubbard, was killed almost instantly when his light touring car crashed through the railing of the bridge over Pudding river, just outside of the city limits of Anvora, on the Pacific highway, and fell a distance of about 40 feet.

Because of the tendency of members of the dental profession to come from the eastern states to the west, while few go from the west to the east, the state board of dental examiners has placed its disapproval on a proposed reciprocal exchange of dental licenses.

Officials of the socialist party have filed in the office of Sam A. Koser, secretary of state, certificates of nomination of candidates for presidential electors, secretary of state, dairy and food commissioner and commissioner of the public service commission for the western Oregon district.

Not less than $85,000 will be netted this season to loganberry growers within a radius of ten miles of Salem, according to an estimate of J. L. Van Doren, berry buyer of Salem. The crop disposed of at a figure sufficiently high to bring this amount is estimated at 6,000,000 pounds.

While cutting hay on his farm a few days ago Fred Lockwood, a rancher of the North Fork country in the western end of Lane county, cut off both feet of his 3-year-old daughter, who was playing in the tall oats. The little girl was not seen by her father until an instant before the sickle hit her.

Following the breaking of a dike at Brownsmead in the eastern part of Clatsop county, approximately 300 acres of fine farm land were inundated and damage estimated between $7000 and $8000 has resulted. About 300 feet of the dike collapsed as a result of the sand foundation giving away.

Wasco county's population, according to census figures, is 13,648 men, women and children. An apparent decrease of 2788 since the 1910 census, totaling 16,336 persons, is explained by the county being redistricted and nearly one-third of the residents transferred to another county since 1910.

The casualty report of the state industrial accident commission for the week ending August 5 shows a total of 524 accidents, of which four were fatal. The fatalities were George Bowman, Sheridan, truck driver; N. H. Fennell, Algoma, lumberman; J. Houston, Klamath Falls, miller; J. A. Blair, Knappa, logger.

Wasco county has the purest field of turkey red seed wheat in Oregon, according to results of a state-wide wheat certification trip recently completed by Professor G. R. Hyslop, of Oregon Agricultural college. The wheat was raised by Albert S. Roberts at his Boyd ranch and graded 99.93 per cent pure for seed purposes.

The hop crop in most localities near Albany is good, and some growers pronounce it the best in many years. Some owners of yards say this year's yield will be double that of last. Picking will begin in the yards near Albany about September 1. In yards near Harrisburg picking will be under way a week or two earlier.

Olaf Anderson confessed to Coroner Hughes and Deputy Coroner Karlson of Clatsop county that he was responsible for his wife's death by drowning Saturday in the Columbia river near Tongue point. According to Coroner Hughes, Anderson admitted showing his wife from the boat in which his wife and their 4-year-old son were riding.

Work on the Link river dam, which will control the storage of upper Klamath lake, will start at once, according to J. C. Thompson, division manager of the California-Oregon Power company. A construction camp has been established and a crew of 100 men will be at work within a few days. It is estimated that the dam will cost $80,000 and will be completed next year.

There are in Oregon 3493 adult Japanese who own 2815 acres of land and lease 7911 acres more. Business investments of Japanese in the state have a value of $860,000. Since 1913 there has been a nominal decrease in realty holdings of the Japanese of 875 acres. Such are the figures compiled by the Japanese association of Oregon and submitted to the congressional committee on immigration and naturalization, which has been holding investigations in California and Washington dealing with the problem of alien land tenancy of orientals.

"Nothing Like It" says the Good Judge

A little of this real tobacco gives a man more satisfaction than he ever got from the old kind.

The full, rich, real tobacco taste lasts so long, you don't need a fresh chew nearly as often. That's why it costs you less.

Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.
