Local News

Joe Woolery, a Salem man, was in town Tuesday looking over the McCaleb yards with a view to invest in some high toned Leghorns.

Riley Rhodes of Independence was operated on for appendicitis Monday.

E. B. North and wife of Timber, Ore., spent Tuesday night with the latter's brother, E. B. Cole and family.

Roy Clarke of Independence is the proud parent of a small daughter, born recently.

Farmers of this vicinity who have utilized spare time to help in the hop picking, are back on the land again, the rain having made fall plowing the next thing on the program. Enough moisture fell to loosen the soil in good shape and each week gained in the putting in of the crop is that much to the good.

E. L. Kilen spent Monday and Tuesday with friends in Silverton.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Treat left Wednesday morning for their trip back to Michigan. They go to Indianapolis to attend the National G. A. R. Encampment and then proceed to Detroit, Michigan and the Alma and St. Louis, Mich., their homes of former days where they will visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Church, a former resident and a returned missionary, is expected in Monmouth for a visit shortly.

Stanley Evans is back from the harvest season in Eastern Oregon where he reports everything and everybody prosperous.

E. J. Himes was in Monmouth Wednesday securing signatures on a petition as an independent candidate for county surveyor. He reports much encouragement in his quest.

Miss Edna Scott has gone to Prairie City where she teaches school this coming year.

Elmer Rake and Geo. Sullivan returned Tuesday night from a two days fishing trip in the Alsea country. They report good catches of fish although the waters were muddy because of the heavy rainstorms.

Mrs. Bella Robinson and daughter are now domiciled in Eugene where the latter, Miss Bea, is to teach this next year. They recently sold their house at Seaside and have invested in Eugene where the only way for a newcomer to get living quarters is to buy. Miss Daisy Wikstrom, former Normal student and a teacher in Eugene, is boarding with the Robinsons.

Elmer Rake recently sold his small house and lot on East Main street to Mrs. Thorp, consideration $500. The sale was made through John Moran. Mrs. Thorp plans to build a modern bungalow on the lot. Mr. Rake has taken possession of the Elizabeth Clarke house.

George Rockwell of Sheridan bought the S. D. Coats property on West Main street this week thru G. T. Boothby, purchase price, $300. This is a good corner and Mr. Rockwell plans to improve it and make it his place of residence.

It is reported that T. J. Edwards has bought the Taylor Hill farm which is located across the road from his present farm and consists of 250 acres, at $100 per acre. This farm is sometimes known as "Walnut Acres", having a number of acres of young walnut trees just beginning to bear. The walnut orchard has been held by Mr. Hill at $300 per acre.

Fred Huber, who since he deserted the job of rural mail carrier has made a notable success as a farmer, reports a fine oats yield this year. He had one 16 acre tract that went 59 bushels to the acre and a smaller piece that went even better than that. He is on one of the Staats farms along the Luckiamute and had in a large wheat acreage this year. While the yield this year is not as large as last year's crop he has already sold a car load of wheat. For this wheat which was sold uncleaned, just as it came from the separator, he received $1.09 cents per bushel and he is holding the balance of his crop in anticipation of higher prices later on.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

Ruskin says: First feed people, then clothe and house people, then please them with art. The fundamental thing is to feed them. "As armies travel on their stomachs," so an active brain must have a well-nourished body.

A COLLECTION OF GOOD THINGS.

For a spring dish which is especially good, cook together green peas, new potatoes and small green onions and new carrots; add a few slices of crisp fried bacon cut in bits and when the vegetables are cooked, season well and add milk. Serve hot.

Coleslaw.—Slice firm cabbage and put into a dish of cold water to crisp. Prepare the following for dressing: Take two well beaten eggs, half a cupful of sour cream and cook over water until thick, take from the fire and add two tablespoonfuls of vinegar, half a teaspoonful of salt and a dash of cayenne. When cold mix with the cabbage which has been well drained and dried on a cloth.

Fruit Drop Cakes.—Cream two-thirds of a cupful of butter or any sweet fat, add one cupful of brown sugar, a teaspoonful of cinnamon, one-third of a cupful each of currants and raisins cut fine, two-thirds of a cupful of chopped walnuts, two well beaten eggs, a half teaspoonful of vanilla, one pint of flour and two teaspoonfuls of baking powder. Drop by spoonfuls on baking sheets. Bake in a moderate oven.

Coffee Caramels.—Put a pound of dark brown sugar into a saucepan, add one cupful of clear strong coffee, one-half cupful of cream and one tablespoonful of butter. Cook until it snaps when dropped in cold water. Pour into greased tins and mark in squares, as it cools.

Velvet Sherbet.—Mix the juice of three lemons, one and one-half cupfuls of sugar and stir until dissolved; add four cupfuls of rich milk and freeze. It may look curdled, but when frozen it will be as smooth as velvet.

Stuffed Egg Salad.—Cut hard cooked eggs in halves, take out the yolks, cut a thin slice from each rounded white to make it stand firmly, drop in each a little mayonnaise. Mix the yolks to a paste with the mayonnaise, using any minced meat fish or flavor vegetable for seasoning. Fill the cavities and sprinkle with chopped parsley.
