After working on the books of the defunct Jacksonville bank for six weeks, State Bank Superintendent Bennett filed his report with the circuit court, showing assets of $217,527.18 and liabilities of $319,000, with an estimate that the bank will be able to pay 25 cents on the dollar.

Fear that Mr. and Mrs. Jessie E. Tuck of Redmond may be lost, without provisions, in the Grizzly basin country at the foot of Mount Jefferson, prompted the departure of a large search party from Sisters. No news from the missing couple has been received for the past three weeks.

The Wasco county circuit court has dismissed the action brought by Silas Moody to enjoin the state highway commission from constructing a public highway across land connecting up the Columbia river highway in eastern Oregon with the new state bridge recently completed over the Deschutes river.

Local News

Two aeroplane wrecks thrilled the state fair crowds Wednesday. One was smashed to bits during the day by closing off power too soon in the descent and the other took fire at night when the driver, who was taking part in the sham battle, dived down too close into the fireworks. With a little help, however, the last plane was saved from complete destruction.

Mrs. Joseph Mortimer of Black Rock was here Thursday looking after the renting of the land they purchased near town last spring.

Harvey Dickinson has sold his farm and is moving to Independence where he has owned property for some time.

Ford Pre-War Prices

Back in the years 1904, 1905 and 1906, a single Ford Touring car sold for $2,000.00.

The war started in 1914. Compare the following prices at Detroit with the prices recently established by Henry Ford:

	New 1920 Ford prices	1914 - 1915 Ford prices
Chassis	$360.00	$410.00
Runabout	$395.00	$440.00
Touring Car	$450.00	$490.00
Sedan, with starter,	$795.00	$975.00
Coupelet, with starter,	$745.00	$750.00

All above prices are f. o. b. Detroit

And REMEMBER the industrial stress and strain of the years of war brought to light no new development, no new chance of improvement which is not embodied in your Ford today. The present Ford cars are the best the Ford Motor Company ever made.

These prices are cut to the limit. The new Oregon allotment of 1176 Ford cars per month assures you of reasonably prompt delivery.

You need one, you want one. Place your order now.
