

Christmas Gifts

- Photographs
- Records
- Kodaks
- Toilet Articles
- Souvenirs

Perkins' Pharmacy

If we haven't got it we'll get it. Ask us.

Local News

Mr. Copeland, principal of the Airlie schools was a visitor at the teachers' meeting in Monmouth Saturday.

Mrs. J. Leask has been in Tillamook for a week or more past helping to care for her sister, Mrs. J. A. Smith who has been sick. W. J. Miller was also in Tillamook a part of the time. Mrs. Smith is much better.

Ostrander and Bush, the gentlemen who bought the Norm theater equipment have not as yet been able to get their machine into shape to operate and been delayed in getting started.

Dr. M. J. Butler reports he is doing a flourishing business in Independence.

Go to Moore & Addison Furniture Co., Independence, Oregon, for your furniture. What would make a more sensible Christmas Gift than a nice piece of Furniture.

E. E. Hewitt of Ashland was in Monmouth Wednesday on the way to his farm south of the city.

C. C. Lewis of Lewisville and Mrs. Mathery and father of Airlie were trading in town Wednesday.

We have a dandy bargain in a used Piano. We are also agents for the famous Sherman, Clay line of Pianos. Moore & Addison Furniture Co. Independence, Oregon.

Last Friday night a carpet rag social was held in the Airlie school house and $83.65 was netted to the school to be used in the purchase of equipment. The men bought balls of carpet rags and had to unwind the same in order to learn the name of their partner for supper. J. F. Ulrich acted as auctioneer.

Genuine Cedar Hope Chests as low as $6.75 at Moore & Addison Furniture Co., Independence.

H. C. Stewart of Chehalis was here during the past week assisting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Stewart get ready for departure. They left Thursday, going first to Forest Grove for a brief visit during the time their furniture is en route to Chehalis. The Stewarts have been there six years and have made many friends who are sorry to have them leave our city.

We have a nice line of Baskets, Jardinières, and other little novelties that will make appropriate Christmas Gifts. Moore & Addison Furniture Co., Independence, Ore.

An agent of F. A. Weygant, nurseryman of Canby, disposed of a truck load of prune trees in Monmouth Tuesday. Dow Hamar and H. S. Portwood were among the purchasers.

A. Parker, Monmouth postmaster, got his name in the Portland Journal last Sunday in a write up of his record as a mail carrier, he being the first rural carrier out of Independence. Mr. Parker, who has a taste for statistics, figures that as mail carrier he traveled with horse and buggy 100,160 miles. He served for ten years as mail carrier, starting in July, 1903.

Pictures always make a good Christmas gift. We have just received a splendid assortment. Call and let us show them to you. Moore & Addison Furniture Co., Independence, Oregon.

SUGGESTIONS for SENSIBLE CHRISTMAS GIVING

Make the Growing Boy sojremely happy with the gift of a pair of high cut shoes like dad's. We have the genuine Bergmann's the kind that keeps the water out. New prices sizes 12 1/2 to 2 $6.00 2 1/2 to 5 1/2 $7.00

Silk Underwear

These will answer the question every woman asks at this time: "What shall I give her for Christmas?" Vests of finest jersey silk $2.98 Camisoles $1.45, 1.75 Brassieres $1.49, 1.89

Other Gift Suggestions

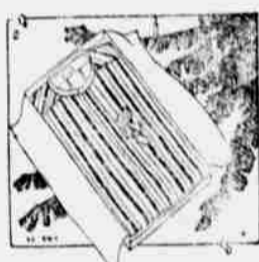

- Blankets, Indian Robes
- Shoes, Sweaters,
- Candies, Chinaware
- Handkerchiefs, Umbrellas
- Child's boots, Traveling bags

Make this a Christmas without disappointments by giving useful gifts.

Women's List

- Silk Hose, Blouses, Camisoles
- Pumps for party wear
- Boudoir Caps, Fancy Towels
- Silk Dress Goods,
- Ribbons, Silk Underwear, Purses
- Bedroom slippers, Art materials
- Wool Dress Goods,
- Silk petticoats, Bead necklaces
- Kimonos, Yarns, Shawl Scarfs

Men's Dress Shirts

Fast color percale, madras, soisette and printed reppes with military low and detachable collars. Prices $1.50 to $4.50

Men's Dress Sox

Plaited silk, blk 75c Pure thread silk $1.25 Mercerized lisle in black, tan cordovan, green, gr y, oxblood, navy, 50c, 65c, 75c, 90c Fancy plaids and mixtures 75c, 90c

Men's List

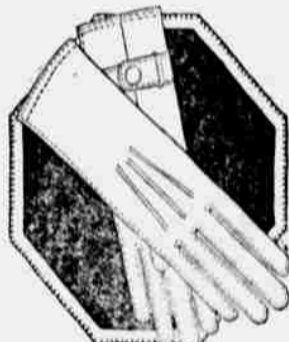

- Sox, Arm bands, Garters
- House slippers, Cuff buttons
- Overcoats, Hats, Caps
- Shirts, Gloves, Pocketbooks,
- Suspenders, Belts
- Tie clasps, Collar pins

Men's Neckwear

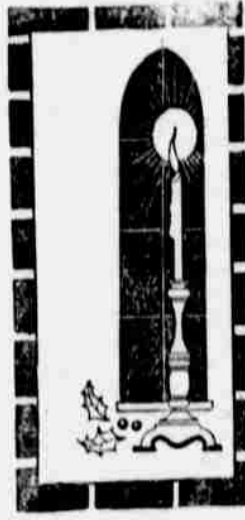

New styles and patterns direct from the factory in the East. Prices $1.00, $1.50, $2.00, $2.50. Knitted silk in attractive patterns $1.00 to 2.00.

Auto Gloves

Good quality, P.K. sewn, extra large gauntlet, adjustable wrist strap., $3.25 Extra fine quality, extra well finished welt seams, moccasin tips, wrist strap, $4.00

Infant's Knitwear

Make the little ones happy with a lasting remembrance. We have an excellent showing of toques in wool and in fiber silk: wool booties, carriage robes, etc.

Mens Dress Gloves

Fine Quality outseam spear point back $3.5

Monmouth Oregon

MILLER'S

Good Goods.

Seven Stores
Monmouth, Salem
Newberg, Yamhill
McMinville, Sheridan
and Dayton

Frank McGee and Laird Linderman of Lewisville were in Monmouth Tuesday.

Henry Hammon and family were here shopping Tuesday.

Chas. Leonard has word that his cousin, J. W. Leonard, a former resident here was badly injured in Los Angeles recently. He had his foot crushed under a street car. Mr. Leonard's home is in Englewood, Cal.

Harry Blodgett and family of Lewisville were shopping in Monmouth the first of the week.

Mr. Barnett whose family moved to town this week, has been employed running a rock crusher for Oskar Huber near Corvallis but is now headed toward eastern Oregon for a winter job. His family will remain here.

Mrs. Jane Gradke was crowded off the highway and run over by an automobile which in turn was crowded by the Salem, Monmouth bus when the two passed just east of the city limits. While badly bruised, Mrs. Gradke had no bones broken.

A four-night course in first aid to the injured will be given by government experts at Oregon Agricultural college.

John F. Burgess, aged 74, of Fishtrap, Coos county, is dead as a result of being kicked in the abdomen by a cow.

Mrs. Anne Elizabeth Campbell, more affectionately known to the older residents of Dallas and Polk county as "Aunt Betty," died at the family home in Dallas at the age of 76.

The common council held a regular session Tuesday night and paid the following claims: Water fund—Earl Keeney, $7.35; Lumber Company, $4.15; C. Stewart, $25; R. B. Swenson, $10. General fund—Graham & Son, $14.22; David Oleman, $11.50; Walter Brown, $3; Pollan Bros., $6; Monmouth Herald, $2.50; C. E. Stewart, $50; R. B. Swenson, $11.55; Perkins Pharmacy, $5.60; Power Company, $73.28; Elmer Hastings, $9; Road fund—Ira Williams, $2.95; Central Clay Products Co., $5.10; M. H. Pengra, $10.50; C. E. Stewart, $25.

Election and initiation work will be the features of the Grange meeting Saturday.

G. A. Pete son of Sover recently bought 164 acres of improved land in the Looking Glass valley, 9 miles from Roseburg and plans to move there after another year in Polk county.

Crossing accidents on the lines of the Southern Pacific in Oregon during the period from January 1, 1918, to September 1, 1920, resulted in a toll of 126 lives, 538 injured and 1616 automobiles damaged or destroyed.

The Hood River county court adopted a resolution limiting the loads of motor trucks on valley highways to their factory rate capacity. The state law permits truck drivers to carry 500 pounds in excess of the rated capacity.

Ownership of tide lands in cases where tidal streams, by process of erosion, encroach upon the lands of shore owners, follows the shifting boundary line to the line of ordinary high tide, according to a legal opinion given by I. H. Van Winkle, attorney-general.

Mrs. C. E. Stewart and Mrs. G. R. Crofoot entertained at an informal get-acquainted party at the latter's home on Tuesday afternoon, those ladies who have recently moved in to the west half of Monmouth. The afternoon was spent in music and singing which was appreciated by all. Refreshments were served after the game of getting acquainted with your neighbor was played. Thirty ladies were present and fifteen children who were with a little party and refreshments of their own in the dining room. All report a most enjoyable time.

Mrs. Odum C. Zook died at her home in this city Thursday forenoon. She had been ailing for some time but not many people knew she was so seriously sick.

Mrs. Maggie Zook was born October 12, 1849. Her maiden name was Coons and she was married to Mr. Zook in 1881. Mr. Zook died in April, 1919.

They are survived by four children, Jess Zook of Dallas, Fred Zook, a builder in the employ of the Southern Pacific and Mrs. Jaynes and Oscar Zook of Monmouth. Funeral services will be held at the Christian Church at 2:30 on December 12, 1920.

C. E. Stewart, water superintendent, received a call out to the intake of the pipe line Thursday morning. A fir tree, blown down with the storm, fell across the line and a spike branch forced a hole in the main. The leak, which is not serious, is being repaired.

Mrs. Thomas B. Tetherow, a pioneer resident of Polk county, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Hittbrand in Independence this week and was buried Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Tetherow's maiden name was Martha McLaughlin and her people lived in the neighborhood of Puena Vista. Her husband died two years ago. Besides her daughter Mrs. Tetherow is survived by a son, Joe Tetherow of the Elkins community.

The dairy herd and premises of J. M. McDonald were inspected by L. B. Moore from the Dairy and Food Commission office, Dec. 2, 1920, who reported as follows: "Milking 8 cows in good, small barn. Udders are washed and wiped before milking. Tested April last for tuberculosis. Delivery to college dormitory. Place O. K."

Elkins News Items

The Elkins High School and several from the grade room attended the Rag Social at Airlie last Friday. Mr. Nelson's Ford truck was coaxed into taking the bunch there and back. A very enjoyable evening was reported by all.

A basket ball game between Elkins and Falls City, at Airlie, Friday night, resulted in a victory for Elkins. The team was urged to do its best by the Elkins roots, and the score of 12 to 16 was received by hilarious yells by the Elkins crowd.

Three delegates from Elkins who will attend the Boys' Conference at Salem are: Lloyd and Melford Nelson and Dell Tedrow.

The Red Cross drive is progressing splendidly, about half of the district has been canvassed at the present writing.

The Student teacher beginning his practice work at Elkins this week is Mr. Chester Ward of Falls City.

A Community Sing was held at the Elkins School house on Monday evening, December 6. A Community Sing is to be held hereafter on each Tuesday evening.

Carl Tetherow was absent from school Wednesday in order to attend the funeral of his grand mother, Mrs. Martha Tetherow.

Several of the people from Elkins attended the Farmers' Union Convention in Dallas, Tuesday. Among those who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Jones and A. E. Tetherow.

A basket ball game between Falls City and Elkins will be played at Falls City Friday evening, Dec. 10. We wish Elkins as good luck as they had at Airlie last Friday.

Harold Burns was a visitor at Elkins school Wednesday afternoon.

Elkins school is the proud possessor of a piano which arrived last Saturday. Mrs. Seymour and Miss Hill selected the piano in Portland during Thanksgiving vacation. It was secured from the Reed-French Piano House. A guaranty of a year goes with the piano, by which, if any fault is found, the piano may be returned, and the price applied on another.