EASTER SONG

Cor. 15:20. But now is Christ risen from the dead and become the first fruits of them that slept.

Luke 16:6. And he saith unto them: Be not affrighted. Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth which was crucified. He is risen. He is not here.

Ring, ring ye bells of Heaven, your chimes of glory ring
The grave has lost its victory and death has lost its sting.

Shout, shout ye sons of freedom for Christ our Lord is risen
The sting of Death he's broken, unlocked the grave our prison.

Oh, shout your loud hosannah, ye nations of the world

Oh, clap your hands for gladness for Christ the grave unfurled.

The Roman seal he's broken and rolled away the stone

And from the tomb he's risen to wear his glorious crown.

Tune up ye Bands of Heaven, and you ye angels sing,

For Christ, the King of Glory, will now forever reign.

Salvation, oh Salvation, let this glad anthem ring,

Till every tribe and nation to Him their tribute bring.

Sing, Glory Hallelujah to Christ our Saviour King;

His name we'll always honor, his praise we'll always sing

Oh now we'll shout with gladness, his praise from shore to shore

Till day shall dawn forever, and Sun shall set no more.

All hail the name of Jesus all hail to Christ our King

From sin and death he saves us to him our praise we bring.

Sing Glory Hallelujah ye ransomed from the Fall,

By grace he has redeemed us, we'll crown him Lord of all.

Railroads operating in Oregon have been authorized to extend for a period of from six to nine months milling in transit privileges, according to a telegram received by the Oregon public service commission from Edgar E. Clark, chairman of the interstate commission. Extension of these privileges was sought by the lumber interests and the recent order, if properly interpreted, should enable lumber manufacturers to move their accumulated stocks to eastern markets without sacrifice.

The unemployment problem in Portland is being met with a remarkable degree of efficiency by the unemployment committee of Portland Post No. 1, American Legion, according to statistics brought to Salem. Governor Olcott and other state officials were outspoken in praise of the committee's efforts as disclosed by the figures submitted. The committee's efforts resulted in furnishing employment for from 14 to 152 men daily during the month of February, or a total of 2208 for the month.

The Oregon supreme court, in an oral opinion, has refused to accept jurisdiction in mandamus proceedings to be filed by Attorney-General Van Winkle to gain possession for Governor Olcott of the interstate bridge spanning the Columbia river between Portland and Vancouver, Wash. Taking over the structure was made incumbent upon the governor under the provisions of a law passed at the recent session of the legislature. As a result of the supreme court opinion the attorney-general probably will file mandamus proceedings in the circuit court for Multnomah county.

Fred P. Kendall, northwest manager for the American Can company, with headquarters in Portland, was named by Governor Olcott as a member of the state fish commission, created under the new segregation law enacted at the recent session of the legislature.

Steam-heating rates of the Northwestern Electric company, which operates exclusively in the city of Portland, were increased from 30 to 35 per cent in an order issued by the Oregon public service commission. The new charges became effective as of March 1.

A weather report compiled by Leroy Childs, superintendent of the Hood River experiment station, shows that the six months ended March 1 set a record for mid-Columbia rainfall and lack of sunshine. A total of 31.96 inches of precipitation fell during the past six months.

George Darveau, well known pioneer resident of Pendleton, died in that city last Sunday, aged 69. Mr. Darveau built the St. George hotel and took an active part in its management until failing health prevented.

Bend sportsmen are preparing to ask a ruling from the state fish commission to make April 1 the opening date for stream fishing in central Oregon, and to lower the daily catch maximum for lake fishing.

Spreading over North China, with the speed of a hurricane, is a horrible calamity of suffering and starvation, of pestilence and death—all due to the most terrible famine the world has ever known. The following cable from Admiral Tsai Ting Kan, paints the gruesome picture:

"Five northern provinces are famine-ridden. Whole districts living on weeds and leaves. Selling or drowning children. Whole families committing suicide. Children suffer most. Calamity so colossal is hard secure funds for adequate relief. Epidemic feared in spring."
