After Two Years of Suffering, Four Bottles Restore This Man to Fine Health

Mr. O. L. Parrott, 3319 East 49th St. S. E., Portland, Oregon, Writes:

For two years I had suffered from a severe case of stomach trouble, lumbago and rheumatism. After meals I suffered such pains in the pit of my stomach I could hardly stand it and sometimes got so bad I just had to lie down.
 My strength all left me, I didn't seem to have a particle of energy and I could never get a good night's sleep. I always felt so tired and worn out I could hardly stay up.

I just suffered agony from lumbago when I stooped over and my arms and knees, in fact all of my joints hurt so badly at times I could hardly walk and my arms got so stiff and ached so badly that I could hardly raise my hands to comb my hair.

Well, I kept on reading about BARK ROOT TONIC, how it would assist Nature and build up your system, until I finally decided to try it, and it certainly proved to be a lucky decision for me.

Why it was almost no time after I started taking BARK ROOT TONIC until I was much improved, and after taking my fourth bottle I can say that it has put me in fine health again.

BARK ROOT TONIC
 A Mild Laxative; A System Builder Constipation is the cause of most all ailments.
 If your system is in a weakened condition through constipation, showing that Nature has lost its hold, let a good Tonic such as BARK ROOT TONIC assist Nature and restore your good health.

HIS SUCCESS PROVES TRAGIC
 New York Man Tells Supreme Court Justice in Divorce Case Wealth Brought Him Unhappiness.

New York.—Joseph Shimansky told Supreme Court Justice Cressney that wealth brought him unhappiness. He opposed the application of his wife, Mrs. Fannie Shimansky, for alimony and counsel fee pending the trial of her suit for separation.
 Both Shimansky and his wife are aged fifty-four. They have five children. Two daughters were married, one to a lawyer and one to a physician, and two were theatrical designers earning from $8,000 to $10,000 a year apiece, according to the affidavit of Shimansky.

 "The Bement avenue house was bought against my wishes," he said.
 "I had seen my children grow up and develop talents I could neither appreciate or understand. My wife craved social advancement and the Bement avenue house was one of the means to be employed in attaining that end.

 "My children came in contact with a different class of people than I had been accustomed to associate with.
 They brought these people to this large and magnificent house. I, not knowing the usages of polite society, became an embarrassment to the plaintiff and her daughters. I finally became a stranger in my own home." Shimansky said that at last he was ordered out of the house altogether.
 Now, he said, he lives in a furnished room and eats in restaurants.

No Soap Better
 For Your Skin
 Than Cuticura

Origin of "Beyond the Pale." In the time of King John that part of Ireland which was subject to English rule was divided into 12 counties, and the entire district was known as the Pale. From this originated the expression "beyond the pale," meaning outside the law or beyond jurisdiction. Inside the Pale, English law was acknowledged and obeyed, while the land outside was in an almost constant state of uproar and dissension.

Australian Cannibals.
 Cannibalism, apparently, has its refinements. In north Australia there are certain cannibal tribes who make a practice of eating their slain friends, but not their enemies—a habit which ought not to conduce to friendliness.

Wolsey's Grave.
 Somewhere amidst the ruins of Leicester abbey, which the earl of Dysart has presented to Leicester, lies the dust of the great Cardinal Wolsey, but the site of his grave, like that of Moses, is unknown.

Don't Forget Cuticura Talcum
 When adding to your toilet requisites, An exquisitely scented face, skin, baby and dusting powder and perfume, rendering other perfumes superfluous.
 You may rely on it because one of the Cuticura Trio (Soap, Ointment and Talcum). 25c each everywhere.—Adv.

 The reasonable man adapts himself persists in trying to adapt the world pends on the unreasonable man.—Bernard Shaw.

 the Chinese method of making a brilliant vermilion color and the Turkish method for inlaying gold or silver on

Had Him Long Time.
 My little brother, six, was asked how old his grandpa was, and he answered:
 "I don't know how old he is, but I know we have had him a very long time."

Partial to Gloves.
 When Elizabeth was queen of England she was very partial to fine gloves as presents, giving them to her friends and enjoying it very much when they were given to her.

Food for Horses.
 It has been demonstrated that seaweed, after the salt has been extracted by a specific process, forms excellent food for horses and that the animals evidently enjoy it.

Tain't no good
 I rubbed two bottles

Ed. dee-ee-ee-ee!
 Oh ED. dee ee ee!
 Do you hear me?
 You march, now!

How do you

 Why you fill up a

You gotta be careful

THE GIRL ON THE JOB

How to Succeed—How to Get Ahead—How to Make Good
 By JESSIE ROBERTS

POLITICAL POSITIONS.

Women who go into politics should go with a sense of service to the body politic. If they do that and can point to results that prove them square, honest and devoted, many women are going to find themselves elected to city jobs.

If you have a bent toward civic work, study the problems in your own community. The past generation saw the marvelous development of women as to the business world. The coming one is sure to see an equally amazing entry into the world of political work.

So far women who have been appointed to various city or state positions have not had to play politics.
 They have been given such positions because they were fitted for them and had the necessary training. That is the right spirit. Get your training and do your studying, know your problems and the type of people with whom you must work. If you are fit for the job, you have as good a chance as your brother to get it—or you will have before old time is much older.

Hot Potato Salad.
 Wash and peel potatoes and cut into balls with a small French cutter—there should be two cupfuls. Cook in boiling salted water until tender, drain and pour over the following dressing after they are well sprinkled with minced parsley: Mix one-half teaspoonful of salt, one-fourth teaspoonful of pepper, four tablespoonfuls of olive oil, one-half cupful of finely minced celery, two slices of lemon, two tablespoonfuls of tarragon vinegar and two tablespoonfuls of minced onion, one tablespoonful of cider vinegar. Heat to the boiling point, remove the slices of lemon and pour over the potatoes.

Souf Cream Cake Filling.
 Cook together one cupful each of sour cream and brown sugar; when thick stir in one cupful of hickory nut meats. Add flavoring and spread on the cake while still warm.

Sardine Salad.
 Cut two stalks of celery into mts, chop half a teaspoonful of parsley, remove the skins and bones from a box of sardines and break into bits. Toss all together and chill. Serve with a hotted dressing with some of the oil from the can added if it is of good flavor. Serve on crisp, well chilled lettuce leaves.

YOU sometimes worry, wonder what your boy will be a man; You like to look ahead a lot,
 The future try to scan.
 You hope he'll be a man in fact As well as man in size, And so his every boyish act You watch with anxious eyes.

But do not worry—you can tell
 The man your boy will be,
 If he the truth will follow well You try to make him see;
 You need not watch his nights and days In search of guilt or guile—You only need to turn your gaze Upon yourself awhile.

There is the place for men to look,
 For fathers to inquire; Sons do not learn life from a book They learn it from their sire.
 The rule you make your boy obey Must be the rule for you—But more the thing will do.

It is not difficult to know The future of the lad,
 For he will very likely grow Exactly like his dad.
 The life he leads as time unfolds, When boyhood days are fled,
 Will be the life he now beholds—The life his father led.

THE CHEERFUL CHERUB

I'm studying the human race
 To find what we are all about—How queer to think I'll have to die Before I find the answer out!

 "Don't you worry, I'll soon have him claimed, as he tenderly lifted a quart bottle from his brief case.—New York

Mother's Cook Book

Words of frank cheer, glances of friendly eyes, Love's smallest coin, which yet to some may give The morsel that may keep alive a starving heart.

GOOD FOODS.

DESSERT which is different but which is both attractive and nutritious is:

Rice Ice Cream.
 Boil two and one-half tablespoonfuls of rice in a pint of milk with three-fourths of a cupful of sugar, a pinch of salt and when done rub through a sieve; when cold add one-half cupful of finely chopped almonds, one-fourth of a cupful of powdered sugar, one pint of whipped cream and two stiffly beaten egg whites. Freeze and serve in sherbet glasses garnished with cherries.

Raisin Pie.
 This is the last word in raisin pies: Stew together one cupful of seeded raisins and one-quarter of a cupful of dried currants in one pint of apricot juice. Add three tablespoonfuls of butter and two egg yolks, two tablespoonfuls of lemon juice and sugar to taste. Put into a shell that has been previously baked, cover with a meringue made with the whites of the eggs and four tablespoonfuls of sugar.

Hot Potato Salad.
 Wash and peel potatoes and cut into
 balls with a small French cutter—
 there should be two cupfuls. Cook in
