Salem Woolen Mill Store News

Some things that many patrons of the store do not know! First, many do not know that it has been conducted by one management for over thirty years, "The Bishops." But few people know that it is the largest store of its kind in Oregon, outside of Portland, selling mens and boys' clothing and furnishings only.

It has been from the first the policy of the management to foster and push home and northwest made goods, making an honest endeavor to popularize them, and giving every encouragement to western manufacturers. Two special features of its policies that we believe have contributed to its success; one was that the management has not tried to get rich in a year or two; second it has not been the policy of the store to sell the cheapest goods on the market. Its endeavor is to sell the best and to sell the best at a reasonable margin, leaving the merchandising of cheap goods to others.

Some twenty years ago the management believed that a clothing store could be built in Marion and Polk counties so that a small margin on volume of sales would be ample in place of a large profit on a small business, and by aggressive methods this has been more than accomplished, and has been the means of saving thousands of dollars annually to its patrons in the way of selling good merchandise within the reach of all.

Another letter to follow next week.
