WHICH ONE IS THE BIGGEST?

When Babe Ruth ignored a big league baseball rule, that no World Series player should engage in "barnstorming" games after the close of the series, he established an issue as to which was the biggest in baseball, he or Judge Kenesaw W. Landis, of Chicago, Chief Commissioner of baseball. Landis warned Ruth not to play. Ruth said it was an unfair ruling and played. Fans the land over are wondering if the "King of Swat" has met his Waterloo.
