The late-hatched pullets can often be sold more profitably than they can be retained. There are always beginners who wish a start with poultry at a small expense. Cull pullets should not be sold to them. Such birds are only good for meat.

Be on the lookout for dampness in the poultry houses. Where freezing is common, close-built houses are very apt to show condensation of moisture on ceiling and walls. Too large a number of birds in a house will also cause this.

In either hen-hatched or incubator-hatched flocks, there are likely to be some backward, slow-growing, slow-feathering chicks. If the hatch is in the brooder, separate these backward chicks, and give them to a hen, or put them with a younger hatch. A turkey hen that has no family is an ideal mother for them.

THE CHEERFUL CHERUB
This growing old surprises me; I cannot feel grown up somehow. I don't get old myself--instead Old people just seem younger now. RYKMAN

Something to Think About
By F. A. WALKER

AS YOU THINK.

THE lovely or homely lines on your face, the expression in your eyes, the curvature of your lips and in fact every visible lineament on your features, is but an outward sign of your thoughts--your hidden self.

"For as he thinketh within himself, so is he," says the Biblical proverb.

Whether you suspect it or not, you carry with you at all times in the tracings on your countenance, all the good and the evil thoughts that control your impulses and shape your destiny.

Some psychologists there are who can with a wonderful degree of accuracy read your face as they would read a printed book and determine after much observation the quality of your character.

A little child is often adept in reading at first glance the cast and build of the telltale marks on a face hardened by crime, and will shrink from it in abject fear, even when there is an attempted smile.

Through the lip-smile a child glimpses the soul and senses the soul's deceit and wickedness.

A thoroughbred dog has the same innate instinct. At the sight of a hard face, the bristles on the dog's back will rise as he sniffs, steps warily and utters a resentful growl.

The thoughts that are yours, those that predominate, shape and compel your acts, govern your words and the intonation of your voice, light your eyes and color your cheeks, slowly and surely trace their indelible lines on your face, that wise creatures may read them with unerring certainty.

If thoughts be ugly, the face will be ugly, and you, yourself, will be as you think, in spite of artifice and diligently polished manners.

Upon the other hand, if thoughts be sweet, pure, charitable, kindly and noble, there will be perpetually shining on your countenance a glorious halo, beautiful and inspiring to behold.

The child will not turn from you; the dog will not growl at your approach; the old and maimed will smile upon you, and so will the world.

Wherever you may go you will be gladly received.

In whatever position in life you may be, whether lowly or exalted, you will find warm hearts and kindly people because you are warmhearted and kindly, and have within you the "vital spark of heavenly flame."

Mother's Cook Book
He who would bring home the wealth of the Indies must carry the wealth of the Indies with him, says the Spanish proverb. So it is in traveling; a man must carry knowledge with him if he would bring home knowledge.

TWO POUNDS OF ROUND STEAK.
WITH two pounds of round steak and meat stock the following dishes may be prepared:
Rice Supreme.

Cook one-half cupful of rice until tender and drain. Melt two tablespoonfuls of butter, add two tablespoonfuls of flour, and when well blended add one cupful of beef stock and stir until thick. Add the cooked rice, one chopped green pepper, one teaspoonful of salt and one-half cupful of cheese. Serve as soon as the cheese is melted.

Meat Souffle.
Melt three tablespoonfuls of butter, add three well blended add one-half cupful of milk. Cook until smooth, add two tablespoonfuls of onion, finely scraped, one teaspoonful of salt, a little pepper and when thick add three beaten egg yolks and one cupful of chopped meat. Fold in the stiffly beaten whites and bake one-half hour in a moderate oven. Serve with Yellow Sauce.

Make a white sauce, using two tablespoonfuls each of butter and flour; when well blended add one cupful of milk, one-half teaspoonful of salt, one-eighth of a teaspoonful of pepper and one egg, slightly beaten. Heat and serve.

Possibly.
Beware of palmistry! When a girl starts looking for your life line she may be throwing out the wife line.

Millions Have Leprosy.
It is estimated that there are 3,000,000 lepers in the world, of whom 2,000,000 are in China.

Surely!
It is easy enough to find a needle in a haystack--if you sit on it.

Comfort Your Skin With Cuticura Soap and Fragrant Talcum
Soothes, Disinfects, Talcum, etc. everywhere. Samples Free of Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. X, Malden, Mass.

White Stains on Hardwood.
A mixture of salt and olive oil will remove white stains from hardwood which are caused by hot dishes. The dry spot is covered thickly with salt, and then as much olive oil is poured over as the grains will take up. This stands over night, and in the morning the discoloration should be briskly rubbed with the mixture, which is then wiped off. If there is still any trace of stain, the application is repeated, again standing for hours.

Many Wear the Ribbon.
According to a current item, in France nearly 1,000,000 men are entitled to wear the ribbon of the Legion of Honor, or one in every fifty inhabitants. Long ago Mark Twain said that "few escape it."--Arkansas Gazette.

Help From the Neighbors.
There are few things more tantalizing to a man than to go home with something on his mind he wants to scold about and find company visiting there and be obliged to act agreeable. --Havensville (Kan.) Review.

Insects as Human Food.
Several kinds of insects were eaten by the ancient Hebrews, Greeks and Romans. Fabre, the French entomologist, once tried a dish of cooked cicadas, but found them unpalatable.

Final Choice.
Wife (showing new bonnet to hubby)--The milliner thought that flowers were the most becoming to me and I have always adored feathers, so we finally compromised by putting on some fruit.

Cuticura Soap for the Complexion.
Nothing better than Cuticura Soap daily and Ointment now and then as needed to make the complexion clear, scalp clean and hands soft and white. Add to this the fascinating, fragrant Cuticura Talcum and you have the Cuticura Toilet Trio.--Adv.

Beyond the Pale.
It is plain that there are books which are not fit subjects for criticism, which do not rise into the field of artistic being, quite irrespective of the number of editions through which they have passed.--Jules Lemaitre.

A Belated Moral.
The moral in the story about the prodigal son and fatted calf is that the calf didn't get a square deal. The calf had been very decent, but was killed in honor of the son whose life was a riot.--Atechison Globe

Helium Atoms From Radium.
A gram of radium continuously sends off helium atoms, known as "alpha particles," at the rate of 145,000 billion a second, traveling at a speed of 12,000 miles a second.

Why it is Called Wall Street.
Wall street, New York, derives its name from the old wall that extended along it in the old Dutch days, and marked the northern boundary of the town of New Amsterdam.

A Calico War.
One of the first Indian wars in the history of early Kansas is said to have originated because an agent sold some Indians a piece of calico with the stripes running the wrong way.

Millions Have Leprosy.
It is estimated that there are 3,000,000 lepers in the world, of whom 2,000,000 are in China.
