

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Christian Church
Subject for Sunday morning
"Three Great Events in the History of Our Race".

The evening subject will be,
"The Humanity and Divinity of Our Lord".

There will be a great song service and a solo by Mrs. Forrest Chambers at the evening service.

The Women's Chorus of 44 voices last Sunday eve was a great success.
The solo by Mrs. Chambers was especially fine. The men are planning a chorus of 50 voices for New Years night. J. J. Powell, the church song leader, will have charge of the chorus.

The Annual meeting banquet and watch meeting will be held New Year's eve.

There will be a Christmas tree and program at the church Christmas eve. All the Bible School and friends of the church are invited.

The mid-week prayer meeting next Wednesday night will be the last and the best of 1921.

Evangelical Church

Sunday morning the Sunday School will have charge of the services and will give a Christmas program. Mr. Lewis will give a short talk, subject, "Children".

Sunday School at 10 a. m.
Christian Endeavor, 6:30 p. m.
Leader, Hugh Van Loan.

The Ladies Aid will meet as usual on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons.

Wednesday 7:00 p. m., Prayer meeting.

Choir Practice, 7 p. m. Saturday.
The new plan of turning the morning services over to the young people is packing the church each Sunday morning and creating intense interest among all those interested in the church. It will certainly do your heart good to see those young people conducting all the devotional exercises from leading the singing to reading the scriptures.

Junior Sermon, "Great Things that Come from Little Things."

Baptist Church

Sunday morning—Christmas Day —at 11 a service of unusual interest is promised. The choir under Mrs. J. S. Lander's efficient leadership is preparing special music for the occasion. The Pastor is to speak upon "The Babe of Bethlehem and Other Babies". All who have had, have or hope to have babies—all who love babies—all who have seen babies—are invited to attend this service.

The Bible School has charge of the evening service and will present a short program.

The morning Bible School session and the Endeavor meeting as usual.

Dr. Allyn K. Foster, a Secretary of the General Education Board, N. Y. City, who covers the U. S. in working with the Universities and Colleges, after getting the reports of the recent official investigation of Pastor Pace's work in Monmouth, among many other things wrote these words of appreciation: "My Dear Pace—I want to say that you are putting over as progressive and as intelligent a program as I know of, anywhere in America. You have really grasped the great fundamentals and your method of applying them to life is absolutely sane.*** I hope can arrange to have you swing the circle of leading universities and colleges with me preaching a big Christian Gospel.***I hope to spend a few days with you soon."

Christian Science

Wednesday evening meeting at 8 o'clock.
