A brother of the late C. E. Herren was here this week from San Francisco visiting with relatives.

Mrs. M. L. Spangler and two daughters of San Francisco visited last week with her sister, Mrs. W. J. Stockholm in this city.

Growers of Loganberries around Salem appealed to the business men of the city to help them save their crops which were being spoiled because of a lack of pickers. There was a general closing of stores in that city Wednesday and clerks and office help adjourned to the fields and picked berries.

The secretary of the Odd Fellows Building Company is now equipped with seal and blank certificates and prospective stockholders can receive their certificates upon payment of subscriptions. A number of the local brethren are already in possession of the small green documents that show they are part owners of the fine structure that is arising and the fact results in a little higher step and a more cheerful smile on their part.

You can safely come to Dr. Thompson for consultation and examination, knowing that his years of experience and knowledge are always at your service. Consult him about your eyes next visit—Tuesday, July 25. Local hotel all day.

Your Portrait Free

Until further notice the Herald is giving with each paid in advance subscription an order on F. C. Davidson for a fine enlarged photograph of the bearer. By a special process in which a powerful electric light is used these enlarged portraits are made from the same negative used in making smaller photographs. The quality of the work may be judged from samples displayed in the Herald office.

Alton McClellan and family were up from Portland Sunday for a visit with his parents in this city.

Although July and August are the slack time of the year for renewals subscriptions to the Herald, this season is proving an exception. The enlarged photographs given with advance subscriptions are proving popular and give satisfaction where received.

Crossing the American continent in one day by airplane making only one intermediate stop will be attempted by Lieutenant James H. Doolittle of Kelley field about August 8, he announced recently. Doolittle will hop off at Kelley field on the morning of August 4 for Jacksonville, Florida, and a few days later will begin a dash from the Atlantic coast to San Diego, California, traveling in a specially built DeHaviland plane.

Points The Way

The Statement of This Corvallis Resident Will Interest Our Readers.

Our neighboring town, Corvallis points the way in the words of one of its most respected residents:

H. B. Tripp, 516 N. 15th St., Corvallis, Ore., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are the best remedy I have ever used and I cannot say too much for what they have done for me. My kidneys were in bad condition and I had such backaches, I couldn't bend or do any lifting. My back was so weak and lame I couldn't do a day's work and my kidneys acted irregularly and unnaturally. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they were just what I needed. The aches and pains left and my back was soon well and strong."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Tripp had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Oscar Russell and family of Wasco are visiting this week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Russell.

A family reunion dinner was held at the home of Mrs. L. R. Burkhead in honor of her son Arthur, his wife and son, Pearson, who drove thru from Oakland, California to spend the week-end with his mother. All were present except her youngest son, Ranie, who was detained in Portland. Those present were J. M. Burkhead of St. Helens, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Long and family of Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Crofoot and family and

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Harvey and family of Monmouth.

Mrs. Arthur Burkhead's mother, Mrs. Bray, also stopped for the week-end and had dinner with the Burkhead family. She was returning from a two week's trip to Seattle and returned to her home in Oakland with Arthur and family, who left Tuesday noon for the return trip.
