Meditations

If Polk county exerts itself it surely can make a much improved county fair. Lumbering, dairying, fruit growing, grain production and the breeding of high grade and pure bred stock all are so thoroughly represented in the county that its fair should rival that of the state.

About all the sensations possible have been squeezed out of the Turkish situation. The Turks are now invited to join the Japs on one of the rear seats while the world takes a fresh start and rumbles on again.

Candidate Pierce has said a lot about reducing taxes but all the practical plans he has put forth of any action he could possibly take in that direction may be represented by a large, round, fat epher.

That injunction forbidding strikers to use force or violence in carrying on a strike appears to have left a trail of woe to certain labor leaders. Nevertheless the public which has for years had to put up with inconvenience and hardship during these periodical periods of strife will rejoice at any step taken to end them. A workman who quits because he is dissatisfied with conditions is entitled to the privilege, but when he attempts to keep anyone else from taking the job he interferes with the rights of the public which is entitled to the service without regard as to who performs it.

By the way, who knows any good reason why Columbus day should be a holiday in Oregon?

The Portland fair has been postponed to 1927. As the 150th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence is to be celebrated in Philadelphia in 1926, it will have to be reckoned with as a competitor.

To the Voters of Polk and Lincoln Counties

As there are many voters in Polk and Lincoln Counties with whom I am not acquainted and who know nothing about me, therefore as a candidate seeking the election on the Republican ticket as joint representative for Polk and Lincoln Counties, I deem it wise to let these voters know something concerning myself.

Born in Douglas County, Kansas in 1858. Moved to Oregon in 1870 with my mother and settled on a homestead on land now in the corporate limits of Toledo. Lived 31 years in Toledo, three years in Corvallis, four years in Astoria, four years in Independence, four years in Roseburg, six years in Newport.

Educated in the public schools and Old college at Corvallis. Married Miss Ella Miller of Corvallis in 1881. Have four sons and two daughters, all living in Lincoln county.

From 1870 to 1893 engaged in farming, logging and steamboating.

County Clerk of Lincoln County from 1893 to 1898, during which time I studied law under the Late Judge John Kelsey of Corvallis. Admitted to the bar in 1897, since which time I have practiced in the Courts of Oregon.

Served as Joint representative of Polk and Lincoln Counties two terms while living in Lincoln County and two terms while living in Independence, Polk County. Served as city attorney and mayor of Toledo, Independence and Newport. Appointed Register of the United States Land Office at Roseburg by President Taft in 1910 serving four years.

Author of Free locks at Oregon City, appropriating three hundred thousand dollars by the State which was matched by the government to purchase the locks at Oregon City making the Willamette River free from tolls and maintained and operated by the government saving the farmers and shippers 50 cents per ton on all freight and 10 cents ahead on all passengers passing through the locks.

Author of the Parent-Teachers Association Law.

Author of the Roosevelt Coast Military Highway Law.

Have for many years been on the firing line for the improvement of Yaquina Bay Harbor.

Had something to do with the creating of Lincoln County in the 1893 session of Legislature.

As attorney and at my own costs, before the Railroad Commission of Oregon in 1908 I brought suit against the Wells Fargo Express and Pacific Express Companies alleging their express rates to be unreasonable, unjust and unlawful, winning both suits and causing a reduction of express rates in Oregon of 25 per cent.

If elected I promise a square deal for all without fear or favor from anyone.
