GOOD FURNITURE IS YOUR DUTY TO YOUR HOME

Modern Furniture Needs

In the dining room, in the parlor, in the hall are many places calling for individual pieces of furniture. For instance, there are stands of various kinds, hat racks, china closets, book cases. In each of these needs and in many others we have a variety of styles from which to choose. They are both

Useful and Ornamental

We offer a worth-while collection of table and floor lamps, porch furniture, etc. There is scarcely a limit to the list of items we carry under this class of furniture. A casual stroll through our displays might suggest exactly what you want if you are undecided.

AIRLIE

The recently organized telephone company, who expect to build a line to connect with Albany, began their first construction work Monday. Poles are being made ready to set and a line opened into Airlie within a short time, after which the line will be completed to Albany. Officers of the company are: J. Glick, President, and G. D. Schenk, Secretary-Treasurer.

A spirited contest is being waged between two selected groups of high school pupils. A representative from one of the leading magazine publishers visited the school, giving some excellent pointers on salesmanship, and promoting a contest for the best sales ability in obtaining subscriptions for one of his magazines, rewarding the school for its efforts by giving one half the subscription price and the best group by equipment to be used in school.

The regular business meeting of the Parent Teachers' Association was held on Friday evening. Inasmuch as the president, Mrs. J. F. Ulrich will soon move from this district, Mrs. John Wienert was unanimously chosen to fill the presidency. After a short musical program, W. Toedemier, school director, took occasion on behalf of the school patrons, to thank Mr. Ulrich for his untiring efforts in school and community work in general. Mr. Ulrich has given generously of his time for the past thirteen years as a member of our school board and deserves much credit in bringing about many improvements. Mr. Ulrich responded feelingly. Refreshments were served to about 100 attending.

Thursday, the 18th, the ladies of the community met for an all day sewing and social meeting. Mesdames Gross, Conn and Dixon served a delicious dinner to the following: Rev. and Mrs. Ballantyne, Mesdames Hadley, Harrison, Hayles, Crowley, Dodson, Ulrich, Cauhey E. Brown, K. Williams, C. Williams, J. Wienert, H. P. Whitaker, C. S. Whitaker, W. Stein, Byerly, and Miss Dorothy Gross.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Cooper are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter a week ago.
