

A Service Feature For Early Christmas Shoppers

The many advantages of purchasing Christmas gifts well in advance is making this custom very popular. Each year more and more people buy Christmas gifts early. Desiring to serve our patrons in the way most to their liking, and to make it easy for everyone to select Christmas presents early, we make a service feature of reserving articles for Christmas on payment of a deposit. New Fall and Holiday goods are on display in all lines. It is a complete showing of the latest styles and offerings for the Holiday season. Selections will be laid away for you now, and if desired payment can be made in convenient amounts any time before Christmas.

MADE THE ENGLISHMAN GASP

Amusing Error Which American Ambassador to England Took With Customary Good Nature.

In his book of reminiscences Mr. John Drew, the famous actor, tells this amusing incident that occurred under his own eye at one of those reconciling celebrations of the Fourth of July which have for years been held in London with both Englishmen and Americans in attendance.

After the two national anthems were sung the supper room opened, and the people flocked in and found seats for themselves. Lewis and I were sitting next to an Englishman who was evidently very hungry and very thirsty. Mr. Phelps, the American minister, walked into the room and looked round over the tables. He wore side whiskers and to a chance observer looked not unlike a maitre d'hotel. The Englishman, not knowing who he was, mistook him for one of the waiters and asked him to bring him a bottle of Apollinaris. He pointed to a bottle nearby that had been opened. Phelps good-naturedly took the bottle and put it down in front of the Englishman and started to walk away.

The Englishman was late because Phelps had not filled his glass. He reprimanded him and as he did so stood up and called to the retreating figure: "What do you mean by this? And who are you?"

Phelps turned and answered: "My name is Phelps. I am the American minister at the Court of St. James's." The Englishman fell back in his chair so violently that he knocked the chair over backward.—Youth's Companion.

explained, in substance: "We can't arrest any bridge players."—Indianapolis News.

To Be an Orator.

The Rev. Daniel J. Mannix, archbishop of Australia, gave some sensible advice to all young men who aspire to be public speakers. He said he had always desired to be a great orator, but he found that he could not, and now he no longer strives toward this object. He advises all who aim at a profession wherein they must seek to influence others by their voice, "not to aim for oratorical elegance, but to simply make their language mirror their thought. Do not exaggerate," he continues. "Use critical judgment." The greatest public speakers are not those who impress you with the beauty of their performance, but those who convince you by their simplicity, directness and sincerity.—Seattle Post Intelligencer.
