GERMANY MUST PAY TO UTMOST ABILITY

Dawes Committee of Experts Agrees on Report on Reparations.

Paris.—The report of the first committee of experts under Brigadier-General Charles G. Dawes, which is practically agreed upon by the experts, is based on these fundamental findings: The German people must pay as much in taxes as any of the people of the allied countries. Germany must pay the maximum of her capacity in reparations. The German economic machine must be free to function under German control, unhindered by any interference from the outside. Minimum sums must be paid at once, or in the immediate future on reparations, these to be increased in proportion to the revival of Germany's prosperity and according to her economic conditions.

In order to put Germany in a position to carry out her part of the program, the experts propose to set up an international bank, to have exclusive right to the issue of German currency on a gold basis. The suggestion of the experts that Germany's economic machinery be freed of any interference from the outside means that the French and Belgians must hand over the administration of the Ruhr and Rhineland railroads and abandon economic supervision of the Ruhr mines and industries. The French and Belgians will be left free to maintain garrisons in the Ruhr or immediate vicinity. So while obliged to give up actual possession of the pledges seized in January, 1923, they will be able at any time to put their hands on the Ruhr industries if Germany fails to carry out the terms.

ROYAL MAIL LINER DECLARED RUM SHOP

New York.—In the trial of the government's suit for confiscation of the Royal Mail liner Orduna, seized as a smuggler, witnesses testified that narcotics and liquor were sold freely each time the vessel reached this port, and that her owners shared the proceeds. Champagne, whisky, benedictine, rum, beer, gin and drugs were dispensed to bootleggers by officers and crew, according to the testimony. The witnesses, including federal agents and members of the crew, declared the Orduna's bar never was closed in port. Charles Dawes, the ship's store keeper and one of the seven members of her crew to plead guilty of illegally importing liquor, was the government's principal witness. He testified that in his three years on the Orduna liquor had been sold aboard her every time she reached the port of New York. He declared liquor was brought in under seal, the seals broken when the vessel docked and liquor was disposed of to bootleggers, and the store room resealed.
