Modern Furniture Needs

In the dining room, in the parlor, in the hall are many places calling for individual pieces of furniture. For instance, there are stands of various kinds, hat racks, china closets, book cases. In each of these needs and in many others we have a variety of styles from which to choose. They are both

Useful and Ornamental

We offer a worth-while collection of table and floor lamps, porch furniture, etc. There is scarcely a limit to the list of items we carry under this class of furniture. A casual stroll through our displays might suggest exactly what you want if you are undecided.

Ephabians Elect Officers

The Ephabians are busier than ever this term and looking forward to many good times.

An election was held and the following officers were elected: Nell Wienstone, pres.; Alice Enquist, vice president; Helen Hanson, secretary-treasurer; Margaret Donovan, sergeant-at-arms and reporter. A new member, Addie Graham, was voted into the club.

The Ephabians are leading the hiking groups on Tuesdays and Thursdays and taking the roll call on the tennis courts.

All members are urged to join us in our fun.

Johnson Hall's recent house meeting warranted the fact that several of the girls are for a course in landscape gardening, to be conducted by Esther Holden and Hazel Hickathier, since they live nearest the proposed garden plot. They propose to plant flowers that will bloom early, before all of the girls leave for home or practice teaching.

Palmer Writing Certificates Given Two Girl Students

Miss Erickson of the commercial department, is very proud of the fact that two of the girls, taking writing in her class, received their Teacher's Certificate for Palmer Writing. The girls, Ann Brown and Thelma Johnson, were able to do this in one semester, which is very unusual.

To have a Palmer certificate means a good deal. It is a thing aimed at by us all, but the majority drop it in the onrush of other work. So we feel that the few who do accomplish their aim are worthy of mention.

Ruth Beal Becomes an Angel

The Juniors lost one of their classmates and one of their best baseball players last week when Miss Ruth Beal left us to become Mrs. John Angel. Both have taken active part in our school affairs this year, Mr. Angel being editor of the Breeze before he left to take a position as principal. We all miss them very much and wish them much success and happiness.

Schumia Club Meets

The Schumia Club initiated six new members into their society Thursday evening. The initiation took place from 6:30 to 8:30 in Miss Woods room. Those initiated were Alice Schoenthal, Louise Marsh, Ruth M. Miller, Constance Loftis, Alta Beers and Mildred Jarl.

The girls entered willingly into all the stunts prescribed for them. Onions dipped in bitter chocolate, closely resembling the real article, were especially enjoyed. Refreshments of brick ice-cream and wafers were served.

HOUSE SONGS

Events at Oak Point

A letter to The Lamron from Oak Point school says:

Country life is great! A lovable house mother and good eats.

The first social even on our calendar was a Sunday School party given Saturday evening, the twenty-ninth.

The Oak Point Community Club met Thursday afternoon, April 3. A delicious luncheon was served and the student teachers were invited. The next meeting will be in two weeks when they will discuss "The Child Welfare Question" and Mrs. Alderson will give a reading and Miss Reba Powers will sing.

At the first of the quarter the school enrollment was fifty-five but owing to a change in districts was decreased in number. We will have about forty now.

Junior House Election

Since the secretary, Jennie Horner, has left the Junior House, Audrey Wood was elected for the new term. Chairman, Lillah Holloway; and reporter, Marguerite Tyberg were unanimously re-elected.

Practice teaching seems to be good for one thing at least. It inspires so many folks to the writing of poetry. For instance the Junior House says: The Senior Cottage hasn't a thing on us,

We've some practice teachers to make a fuss,

From early morn till late at night we hear,

Three fountain pens scribbling loud as we appear.

Such is the fate that lately did befall The whole Junior house? Know not at all,

Just three of our members, fair— Mildred, Leona and Lillian—so there.

Registration Increases

The registration up to date is 635. This is an increase over the registration at the beginning of the winter term. This term usually has the lightest enrollment of any of the year and the fact that there is an increase in very encouraging.

Edna Holder, a graduate of O. N. S. is now teaching in a girls' school in Nagpur, C. P. India. She writes that she finds her work very interesting. She says, "India's needs are urgent." We see history in the making every day. Especially did we see it in the Council of Central Provinces."

President Landers attended an institute held at Oakdale, Tillamook county, Saturday.

President Landers attended the meeting of the Executive Committee of the Board of Regents Thursday.

Wednesday—Springtime is here and with it comes the thought of May Day and with this thought a May Queen of course. "Who is to be May Queen?" is heard everywhere on the campus.

At the primary election held on Wednesday the students had a privilege offered to them which does not come to many people. A throng of beauties from the Junior class mounted the platform in chapel and paraded before our eyes. There were tall Spanish beauties which would have been the envy of Spain; tiny, petite little fairies; buxom country lassies; models which Paris would envy if she could see them—in fact every type of beauty one could imagine. It was a difficult task to select one from such a vast throng, but from what we hear the election was successful and soon we will have the privilege of electing the May Queen from the six who received the most votes in the primary; Beth Rogers, Helen Kirschner, Sara Atwood, Myrtle Mortenson, Ruth Tash and Ruby Hays.

Friday—Today Mr. Ostien took charge of the student body meeting which was held for the purpose of electing the May Queen from the six candidates. The six beauties sat upon the platform, while we cast our weather eye, also our votes. Votes were collected by the members of the student council. At 12:30 the election returns were posted on the bulletin board.

Miss Myrtle Mortenson was chosen by the student body. Everyone is agreed that Miss Mortenson is just the one needed for the position. Her fair hair, expressive eyes, queenly bearing, won her the honor. Not only that, but we know that Myrtle is a capable girl and will do her part to fill the position.

Miss Erickson—Mr. Jones, how many times have I told you not to come back here without your lesson? Rusty Jones—What do you think I am, an adding machine?

A teacher once asked her pupils to name all the presidents of the United States, saying that when she was a little girl she could do so.

One bright pupil replied, "Of course you could, because you didn't have very many presidents to learn."
