BILL BOOSTER SAYS

AM STRONG FOR PAVED STREETS! NOTHING GIVES A TOWN THAT DRESSED-UP LOOK BUT PAVED STREETS, AND THERE IS NOT EXPENSIVE WHEN YOU CONSIDER HOW LONG A GOOD JOB OF PAVING LASTS! NO, SIR! THE SOUND OF HORSES PULLING THEIR HOOPS OUT OF THE MUD ISN'T MUSIC TO MY EARS!

Wednesday two car loads of Monmouth Grangers attended the Pomona at Ankeney, Marion county. A big attendance was on hand with many political candidates. Among a number of resolutions passed during the session were two in particular, one urging every precaution to prevent the spread of the foot and mouth disease, and the other urging retention of the present site of the boys' training school.

Newspaper Changes

There are a few newspaper changes in Corvallis this week. Last Friday Arthur Lawrence of a commercial printing company and formerly Oregon state printer, brought out the first number of a new weekly. Two newcomers to the state, Howard C. King, late of St. Maries, Idaho and Richard E. Sutton of Davenport, Iowa have purchased three quarters of the Benton County Courier and assume charge this week. They are a couple of bright young men who will doubtless render good account of themselves. A. E. Frost, original owner of the Courier retains a fourth interest in the paper. H. E. Browne who bought it about a year ago and now retires is a former owner of the Silverton Tribune and the Independence Enterprise.

Many See Blossoms

Chaperoned by the Cherrians, Salem was host to thousands of visitors who came Sunday to see the cherry trees blooming in the orchard tracts around the city. Bands from the state training school and from Chemawa Indian school provided music during the day. Cars were provided for foot passengers who had none and the state capitol was kept open that people might visit. 500 climbed the capitol dome and 1800 visitors registered at the state penitentiary.

Mrs. Norma Daniel Arant Buried at Oregon City

The funeral services of the late Mrs. Norma Arant, wife of Professor W. L. Arant, principal of the Oregon City High School, were held at the Baptist church Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Clara Esson of Portland, intimate friend of the family, delivered the address, Rev. Willis E. Pettibone, pastor, officiated. A quartet composed of Mrs. Naomi Armstrong-Warren, Mrs. Glen Hankins, J. W. Loder and Roy B. Cox, impressively sang, "Abide With Me," "Where He Leads Me, I Will Follow" and "Now the Day is Over." The accompanist was Miss Eleanor of Beaver Creek.

Many floral tributes were in evidence and the Oregon City high and grammar schools were represented with offerings. The flags on the three school buildings were placed at half mast during the day in honor of Mrs. Arant, who was held in the highest respect by the students of the institutions.

Interment was in Mountain View cemetery. The pallbearers were Bert Roake, Dr. C. H. Meissner, Roy B. Cox, A. C. Howland, E. T. Beverlin and L. A. King.

Eight of the little children had come here to attend the funeral of their mother. The only one absent was little Charlotte, year-old daughter. Among those out of the city attending the funeral were Mrs. T. E. Miles of Newberg, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pettys of Portland, the former principal of Peninsula school and an old time friend of the Arants; Mr. and Mrs. George Jennings of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Arant of Monmouth, parents of Professor Arant; Burton, Francis M. Arant of Eugene; Lucien Arant of Portland, Manly Arant, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. E. Emerson of Glendale, Oregon.

Mrs. Arant died Wednesday after a year's illness.—Oregon City Enterprise.

Rapid Decline

Wheels of Providence Brought Me Korex, Says Minister

"I doubt whether korex has its equals in the medical world," says the Rev. George B. Pinckney of 507 Lawrence St., Burlington, New Jersey, "for in the eight years of rapid decline, I tried everything known which a poor man could or couldn't afford, and none brought relief. Each day I declined more swiftly, until the wheels of Providence brought korex compound. I'm in almost perfect shape now, and I think it a blessing to suffering humanity."

According to enthusiastic users, the benefits of korex are complete and lasting. Thousands the world over are now using this wonder compound. Weary and worn-out men and women, sufferers from muscular pains, lack of appetite, lessened vigor and low glandular activity, will be interested in learning that the American distributors of korex compound, have arranged for korex compound to be sold in Monmouth at Perkins Pharmacy. Ask about korex compound the next time you are in this drug store.
