HOMELIKE SOCIETY

Nineteen members of the Homelike Society met Tuesday afternoon for the purpose of tying comforts and planning their work for the coming year. The officers having been elected the previous week, the ladies are happy in having Mrs. J. E. Winegar for their president for the fifth year. The executive committee comprises Mrs. Winegar, Mrs. T. J. Edwards, Mrs. Frank Moreland, Mrs. G. W. Bann and Mrs. J. S. Fuller.

Much interest is manifest in the society being placed in two divisions and all expect to derive much pleasure from it.

The Bible study which the ladies have taken up for their monthly meetings has also been helpful and interesting.

POPULAR WENDELL TEACHERS MARRIED

Herald readers will be interested in the following from an Idaho paper:—Mr. Henry C. Egelston and Miss Barbara Hixon, two of the popular teachers in the Wendell school, were married last evening at the Methodist church. Rev. H. Fryer, using the ring ceremony, tied the knot that made the young couple man and wife. Mr. Egelston who is teacher in the seventh grade and coach of the high school boys' basket ball team, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Egelston of Monmouth, Oregon while his bride is teaching the overflow from the first and second grades and is coach of the high school girl's basketball team and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Hixon of Portland. Both are graduates of the Oregon Normal school at Monmouth and there began the romance that ended in the happy ceremony last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Egelston were the honor guests of two auto rides last night after the wedding. Mrs. Egelston was kidnapped by the girls of her basket ball squad and Mr. Egelston was treated similarly by the boys of his basket ball team. The party was divided into separate and distinct affairs and neither was returned home until the wee small hours of this morning. Some of Mr. Egelston's friends also swiped his wedding suit and he had to be married in his every day clothes.

While Mr. and Mrs. Egelston were strangers among us at the beginning of this school year, they have each made a host of friends who join the Irrigationist in extending best wishes and congratulations.

National Thrift Week
January 17-24

In Memoriam
Benjamin Franklin

We Celebrate THRIFT WEEK with Thrift Specials!

Benjamin Franklin

This Thrift Week is the American way of honoring the greatest Apostle of Thrift. The week set aside in his memory begins with his birthday, January 17—a most fitting and proper observance. As we all celebrate this occasion, so do we prosper.

A thrifty people are a strong people, while extravagance breeds weakness. This store has always advocated saving and economy, and as we have advocated it, we have also made it possible for you to practice it. Our prices and qualities tell the story.

We wish that "Poor Richard", himself could walk into this store tomorrow, or read this advertisement. He would see real, honest to goodness Thrift practiced by us and the finest host of customers that any store could possibly have.

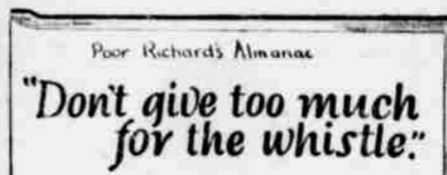

Read down the columns below and note the many concrete examples of Thrift. There is money to be saved on every item listed, and every item is a necessity—that is what makes for Economy. Let's put it over in celebration of Franklin's greatness.
