Portland Wireless to Hawaii.
Portland—The Council Crest station of the United Wireless Telegraph Company was in communication Saturday night with Kahuka Point, Oahu, just west of Honolulu. It is claimed this establishes a new record for long-distance telegraphing by wireless. The station at that point has recently been established, and the messages received at Council Crest were the first from Oahu to the Coast. Congratulations were exchanged by the operator, J. M. Swetser, of the local station, and Arthur A. Isbell, of Kahuka Point, superintendent of construction for the wireless telegraph company of Honolulu.

The air line distance between Kahuka Point and Portland is about 2300 miles, it being about 2100 miles from San Francisco to the island. It is expected that in a short time a permanent service will be established between the Coast and the Hawaiian Islands.

Arrested Man Soon Revenged.
The Dalles—Arrested for jumping his board bill, Lewis Kracht had the complaining witness in the case, Peter Henningsen, arrested for selling intoxicating liquors on Sunday Mr. Henningsen, who is proprietor of the Gerlinger Hotel here, had a warrant sworn out for the arrest of Kracht on the charge of jumping his board bill. Kracht pleaded guilty, paid the amount of the bill, $4.50 and costs in the case. Next day he visited the district attorney, and of his own volition told him that on Sunday, September 20, Henningsen sold him liquors, besides selling to six other men, the names of whom he gave to the official. The six witnesses all substantiated Kracht's testimony.
