SLAYER IS ACQUITTED
ARMED ENEMIES LIE IN WAIT.
DRAMATIC CLIMAX TO MURDER TRIAL.

Court and Sheriff Help Man to Reach Launch and Elude Friends of Victim.

Portland, Or., Oct. 12.—Fearing that enemies would carry out their threats against his life and shoot him down before he could reach a place of safety, Michael Campbell, acquitted at midnight Saturday at Cathlamet of the murder of John McClelland, was the central figure yesterday morning in the dramatic and exciting climax of one of the most bitterly contested and costly murder trials in the annals of Southern Washington.

Before and during the trial at Cathlamet, friends and relatives of McClelland had openly boasted that if Campbell was acquitted he would be shot down before he could leave the courthouse yard. Judge Griffin, of Seattle, before whom the case was tried, took official cognizance of the oft-repeated threats. At the moment the jury retired for their deliberations he ordered that all the doors of the courthouse be locked and that the spectators remain in their seats.

L. L. Lewis, superintendent of the Western Detective Agency, arranged the details of the flight. Early in the evening, when darkness covered his movements, he cut away a part of the fence close to the jail. Then he stationed himself in the brush on the river side of the courtyard to await the defendant, who was to crawl through the hole instead of being returned to his cell. A gasoline launch was anchored in the Columbia and in this the man whose life was craved was to be taken in safety up the river.

It was midnight when the detective and his charge boarded the launch and at 4:50 a. m. the two reached Kalama. At Kalama they took the Northern Pacific train for Portland. It was May 20th of this year that Campbell killed McClelland, the trouble originating over a lawsuit, in which Campbell was a witness against McClelland.

MAN WHO TRIED TO KILL GUTEAU KILLS EMPLOYE.

Washington, Oct. 11.—Noted for having attempted to avenge the death of President Garfield by shooting at Guiteau, William Jones, a farmer, locally known as "Bill" Jones, the avenger, tonight shot and killed John A. McPherson, of Detroit, at Bates farm, near Brookland, on the outskirts of this city.

McPherson, who was 29 years old, had been working on Jones' farm since he was discharged from the United States Marine Corps in June.

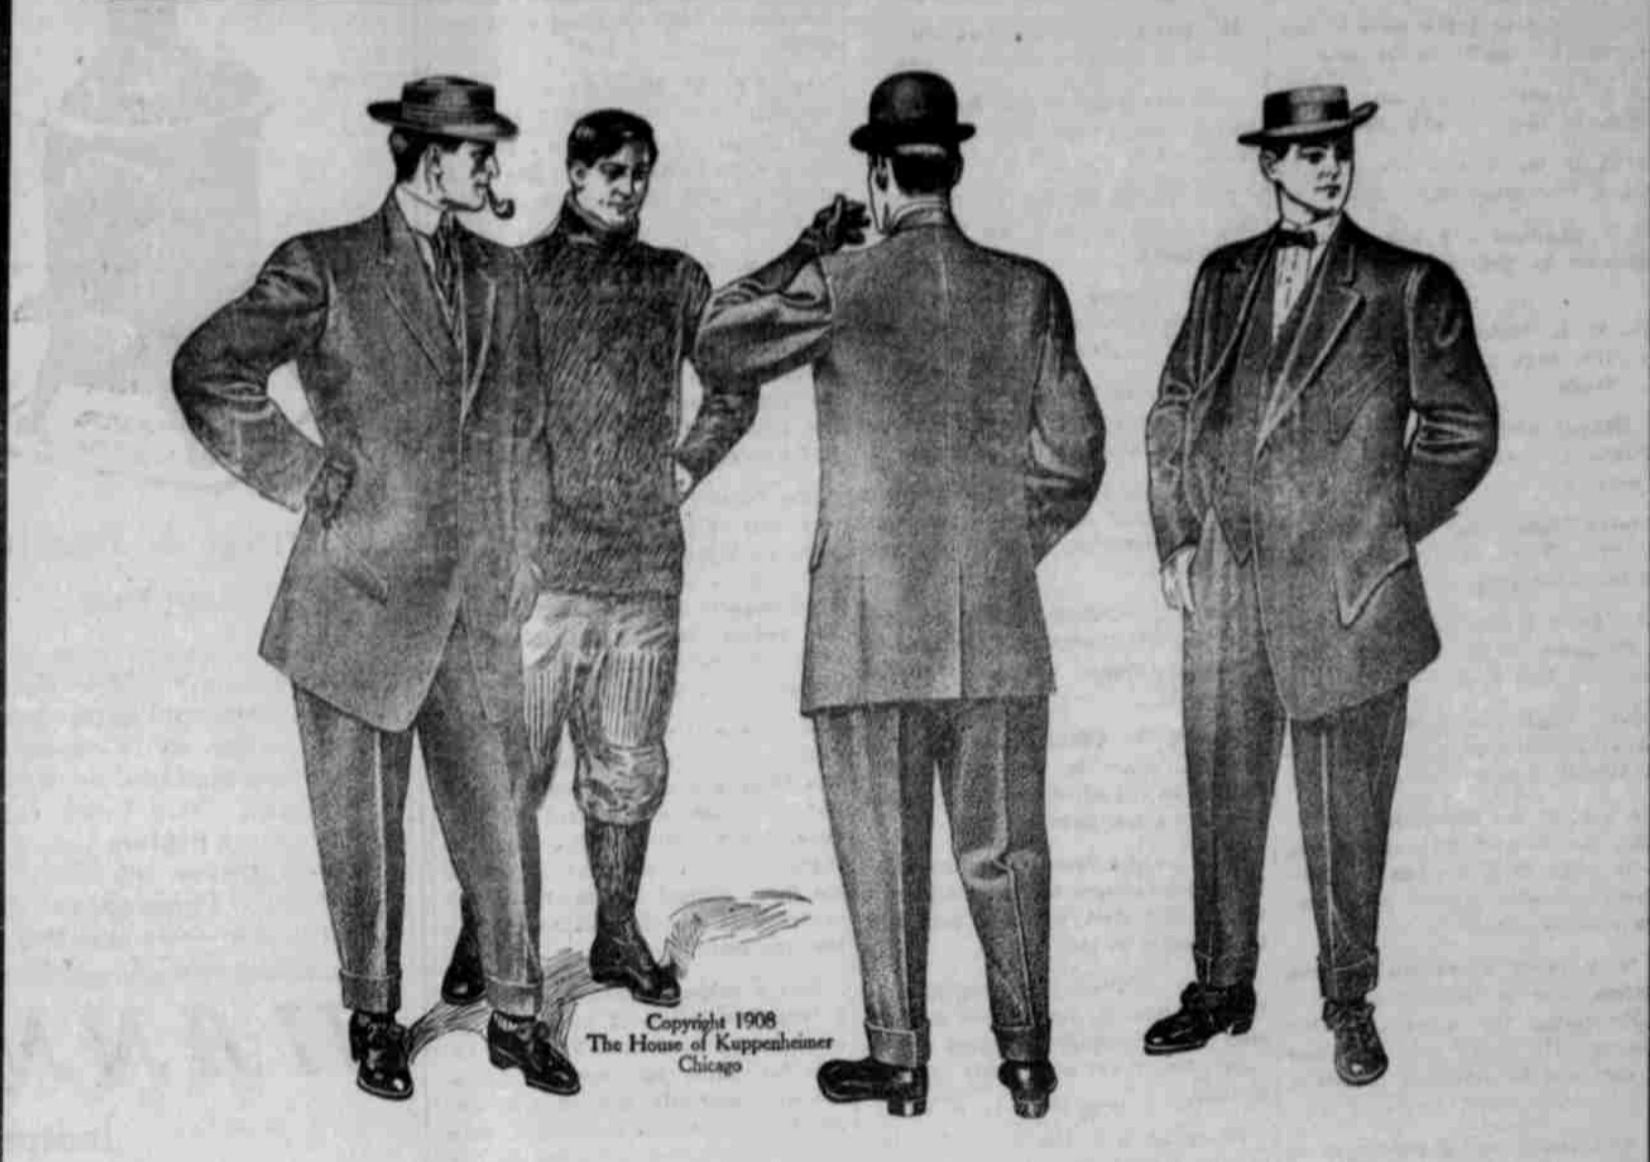

Several days, following upon President Garfield's death, Guiteau was taken to court for a preliminary hearing, and it was while he was being returned to jail under charge of District Marshal Corkhill that Jones attempted to shoot him. Jones was riding a spirited horse. He followed the prisoner from the courthouse to within several blocks of the jail, when he suddenly spurred his horse, darted through the crowd, drew a revolver and fired into the prison van. Jones was tried and acquitted.

Wife of Rancher Drowns in Wine.
Santa Rosa, Cal., Oct. 12.—Mrs. George Collier, wife of a rancher at Occidental, was drowned yesterday in a vat of wine. The woman was visiting the winery on the Collier ranch and had climbed to the edge of a large vat, partly filled with wine. In some way undetermined, probably through being overcome by the fumes, Mrs. Collier lost her balance and fell inside the huge receptacle. Before assistance reached here she had been suffocated.

STYLISH CLOTHING

WHEN hundreds of young men in the county buy their Clothing regularly from us it's a fair indication that we're handling the right kind of goods. When these same young men pay us $15, $18, $20 and $25 for a suit it's good evidence that they think it worth while. The young man who buys one of our new Fall suits of the "Kuppenheimer" make gets out of the crowd of just fairly dressed men and is distinguished for the good taste, style and swing of his clothes.

PREY FOR GAMBLERS

Games Run Day and Night and Many Big Winnings Are Made—Situation Is Serious.

Dallas, S. D., Oct. 12.—It is estimated that 1000 land-seekers who have come to Dallas and Gregory have lost their money at gaming tables and are "broke." Many more who have lost all their ready cash have been forced to telegraph for money.

Nearly 60,000 persons have registered at these two points already and nearly as many more are expected before the period of registration closes. Hundreds return as quick as they have registered, but thousands have remained for the drawing.

Gamblers have operated their games without restraint and are said to have made remarkable winnings. They run pell mell 24 hours a day, with the games as strong at day-break as when the sun sets.

To be broke in this country means something to a man, because he is without friends, generally, and at a time when it is not easy to make new ones. Every outgoing train carries many men who have lost their money and risk their lives riding on brake beams.

No land opening has ever brought more people, and they all come with money.

Grace Damon spent Sunday with her parents here. She is employed in the central telephone station in Dallas.

Allege Crooked Dealings.

Portland—A petition praying that the Albany Farmers' Company, of Linn county, be declared bankrupt, was filed last week before the United States court. The petition was filed by the Eugene Mill & Elevator Company, and the allegation is made that the Farmers' Company disposed of oats and wheat stored by the owners in their warehouse and that the Farmers' Company defrauded the owners by disposing of the oats and wheat and refused to give an accounting. The petition sets forth that the Farmers' Company recently disposed of a portion of its assets by selling property to Albert Freersken.

William Long, a grain buyer, also makes a serious charge in the petition. He claims to have lost $73 bushels of oats. Mr. Long says he sold his warehouse receipt to J. R. Baltimore and that when this receipt, signed by the Farmers' Company, was presented to the bank on which it was drawn, payment was refused. R. A. McLogan also joins in this point. He alleges he stored 1887 bushels of wheat, that it was sold and no accounting made.

Justice of Peace Marries Chinese.

Portland—Justice of the Peace J. W. Bell performed the wedding ceremony last week for Hong Ying and Ling Sing, two local Chinese. This is one of the first instances in Portland of a Chinese couple being married according to the American custom, but this pair was very insistent on this point. However, they were married again according to the Chinese fashion.

Prineville to Get New Charter.
Prineville—The Prineville city council last week authorized framing of a city charter more in conformity with the present growth and needs of a city of this class. The present charter was drafted in 1888.
