To Polk County Patrons

On account of our interest in the development of Polk county, together with that of Marion, we have purchased from the Independence Enterprise 100 yearly subscriptions to that paper which we intend to give away to Polk county patrons absolutely free of cost to them. These subscriptions we will give only to people who are not already subscribers to the paper, and every resident of Polk county will get one from us whose purchase of merchandise amounts to $15 in any one month between now and the first of January, 1909. These subscriptions will not be mailed to anyone outside of Polk county.

We are proud of this splendid country weekly. It will do more for the development of Polk county than any other influence. Over twenty columns of reading matter on an average throughout the year is what you will get out of the Independence Enterprise. There are no strings on this offer. You will positively get the paper for a year absolutely free.

ELKIN as Attorney-General of Pennsylvania Receives $15,000 to Kill Proposed Legislation.

New York, Oct. 25.—William R. Hearst last night read the most startling and sensational documents yet given out in his campaign work. In substance, the letters read by Mr. Hearst from John D. Archbold to officials of Pennsylvania show beyond all reasonable doubt that Standard Oil placed judges on both the superior and supreme court benches of that state, and in addition, after the payment of $15,000 to Attorney-General Elkin, of Pennsylvania, that official was asked in plain terms to kill certain proposed statutes because they were inimical to the interests of Standard Oil.

Elkin is now, and has been since 1904, an associate justice of the supreme court of Pennsylvania. He was Attorney-General from 1899 to 1903, and it was while he held this office that he accepted money from the oil octopus. During the same period Charles W. Stone was Governor of Pennsylvania. According to letters read last night by Mr. Hearst Stone was requested by Standard Oil officials to appoint certain men to the superior court of the state, with the result that Judge Morrison and Judge Henderson, at Archbold's dictation, were appointed owing in part to their "familiarity with oil and gas."

OREGON BRIEFLETS

The State Land Board has just approved 23 applications for the loan of the common school fund interest, aggregating $46,275.

Mrs. Nancy Young, of Central Point, fell from the vestibule of a Southern Pacific train, near Grants Pass, last week and narrowly escaped death.

The corner stone of the new High School building at North Bend was laid Monday. It will cost $53,000 and will be the finest building in that part of the state.

Clerks in Pendleton clothing stores have succeeded in having their employers sign an agreement to open their places of business at 7:30 in the morning, instead of 7 o'clock, as formerly.

The jury in the case of the State vs. S. J. Kitching and George McVey, indicted jointly for shooting up the Prineville Methodist church last September, returned a verdict of not guilty last week.

Frank O'Day, an oil man, will drill for oil at Coos Bay. It has been known for some time past that there was oil around there, and during the past summer a number of investigations along that line have been made.

R. I. Hume's gasoline schooner Osprey was taken off the bar of Rogue river at high tide last week. No damage was done to her. The Enterprise is high on shore, upright and uninjured. Efforts are being made to raise her and take her overland along the beach. No one was injured and all freight has been unloaded.

The latest thing in the way of water appropriations from the Umatilla river was the filing with the County Recorder of the appropriation of 30,000 inches from the river, five or six miles below Pendleton. The papers state that the water is for the development of electrical power and other purposes.

Hog cholera has made its appearance in the vicinity of Junction City for the first time. In the large herd of C. W. Washburne, who has lost 25 head of large porkers, and it is feared will lose 100 more. The State Veterinary Surgeon was there a few days ago and pronounced it the same hog cholera that exists in some of the Eastern states.

The Central Oregon railroad is rapidly carrying forward its survey work. This proposed line will cross Crooked River gorge, 20 miles west of Prineville, from Madras to Bend, and a spur is to be built from that point to Prineville, which will thus largely eliminate Shaniko as the principal wool and cattle shipping point in interior Oregon.

D. H. Weyant, of Salem, is arranging to secure from Lane county materials for an Oregon forestry exhibit at the Seattle exposition next year. He got up the mineral exhibit for the Lewis and Clark exposition in 1905, and the state commission for the Seattle exposition employed him to get up the state's forestry exhibit at that fair.

Harry Clark, a young Indian, who was on parole, is in the Oregon City jail, charged with robbing Mrs. Victoria Howard, a Grand Ronde Indian, who says Clark took from her a certificate of deposit on a Sheridan bank for $190 and $113 in cash. Saturday night she was given some coffee by the Indian entertainer and says there were some knock-out drops in it.

Frank Busch, of Oregon City, lost 500 fine Eastern trout a few days ago in a peculiar manner. He had the fish in a pond on a lot adjoining his store, and last week the rain overflowed the pond and the fish made their way through the streams to the Willamette river. The trout had been fed and cared for by Mr. Busch for several years and were 12 to 16 inches long. Not a single one remains in the pond.

As a result of eating poisoned meat, four persons, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Hutson, their daughter, Mrs. Dunnivan, and her 9-months-old baby have been lying in a critical condition at their home in Glendale. Some meat which had been cooked the day before and left in the warming-oven under a tin cover was eaten and in a short time all were taken violently ill.

The biggest individual bounty warrant yet issued in Douglas county was received last week by "Bill" Bradley, the lone resident of Caps Ilahe, near the head waters of the North Umpqua river, 70 miles east of Roseburg. Bradley presented the scalps of 37 wolves and coyotes, which, at $10 apiece, brought him a total bounty of $370. All the animals were slain by Bradley between August 15 and October 10 of this year. Some he poisoned, others he trapped, while the remainder he shot after they had been bayed by his hound.

Mayor S. S. Johnson and Postmaster A. W. Severance, of Tillamook, engaged in a fist-to-face battle in the postoffice building last week. The trouble arose over a local option case tried in the justice court, in which Severance was the complaining witness and Johnson the defendant's attorney. The lie passed between the two men while Johnson was standing at the money-order window, Johnson striking the postmaster in the face through the window. Severance hurried from behind the railing and in a few minutes the two were mixing things at a lively rate, the Mayor receiving the worst of the deal. They were finally separated by bystanders.

IN INDEPENDENCE

Every Claim is Backed by Local Testimony.

If the reader wants stronger proof than the following statement and experience of a resident of Independence, what can it be?

Zed Rosendorf, clothing merchant, living on Main street, Independence, Ore., says: "I do not believe there is anyone who has suffered from kidney complaint more severely than I. For ten years I was troubled with this complaint and finally became so bad and my back became so weak and stiff that I was forced to walk in a stooped over position. My kidneys were in a terrible shape and caused me to arise almost constantly during the night to pass the secretions. Often at night I would have to sit up, not being able to rest in any position. My limbs were swollen and my eyes puffed so severely at times that I hardly knew what to do. I doctored with many physicians but was told that I had an excess amount of sugar in my system and that there was no help for me. I tried everything and finally heard about Doan's Kidney Pills. They helped me from the first, and I am today so free from kidney complaint that I am unable to express my gratification. I am able to stand erect and my kidneys are nearly normal. I believe there is nothing in the world for kidney trouble like Doan's Kidney Pills."

NEW ROAD TO OPEN

Arrangements for Celebration Are Being Made by Portland.

Portland, Or., Oct. 27.—November 5 is the probable date of the opening of the North Bank road into Portland. Arrangements are now being made for a monster celebration of the event on that date.

James J. Hill, the great railroad builder, accompanied by the chief officials of his system, will attend the demonstration and will make speeches.

GAMBLING ELEMENT OF RENO DEFEAT MORAL CRUSADE

Reno, Nev., Oct. 25.—Reno will remain a wide-open town for some time to come, according to the result of the city election held here yesterday, when the gambling element won by a majority of 568 votes out of a total of about 3100 votes cast. The election was on a city ordinance to forbid the running of gambling games under license in the city of Reno.

Mark Trail in Montana.

Livingston, Mont., Oct. 24.—The first monument to be erected in Montana for the purpose of marking the Lewis and Clark trail through this state was unveiled in this city yesterday by the Yellowstone chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. The stone, which bears a suitable inscription, marks the spot where Captain Clark camped on his return trip from the Pacific Coast and it located just in the outskirts of the city, on the banks of the Yellowstone river. It is the first of a number of historic spots in Montana which the Daughters of the American Revolution will mark.

Lose Citizenship After 30 Years.

New York, Oct. 26.—After having voted in New York City for 30 years and while still drawing a pension granted him on account of his services with Farragut during the Civil War, William A. Hang will not be able to vote at the coming election. His citizenship papers have been canceled by a decision of the courts, and unless the decision is reversed Hang will no longer be a citizen of the country in which he has lived for 30 years. Hang is a Chinaman, and under the recent acts of congress he cannot be a citizen of the United States.
