Now is the time to visit

California

When summer has passed in these northern states, the sun is only mild under the bright blue skies of Southern California. This is one of nature's happy provisions — eternal summer for those who cannot endure a more severe climate. California has been called the "Mecca of the winter tourist." Its hotels and stopping places are as varied as those of all well regulated cities. Visitors can always find suitable accommodations, congenial companions, and varied pleasing recreations.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC CO.

Will be glad to supply some very attractive literature, describing in detail the many delights of winter in California.

The rate from Independence to Los Angeles and return is $58.90.

Limit six months, allowing stopovers in either direction. Similar excursion rates are in effect to all California points.

For full information, sleeping car reservations and tickets, call on telegraph, or write G. A. Wilcox, Agent, Independence, or Wm. McMurray, Gen. Pass. Agt., Portland, Oregon.

Clyde Williams and family went to Astoria Tuesday on a few days visit.

A son was born to the wife of George Gerlinger of Dallas last Saturday morning.

"Hornets and Angels" will be the subject at the Baptist church next Sunday evening.

Rev. A. E. Leonard, uncle of Rev. J. S. Leonard, returned Monday to his home in Portland.

Mrs. Ida Vaughn and Dorothy Cooper went to Portland last Friday to spend a few days.

C. L. Fitchard returned Monday morning to Independence from a visit to Crosswell, Oregon.

Miss Geneva Wilcox returned Wednesday from Portland, where she has been spending a few days.

R. M. Hofer, accompanied by Mrs. Hofer, was in Independence Sunday, the guest of C. C. Patrick.

Miss Grace Wallace went to Corvallis Tuesday to visit her brother, Ed. She returned Tuesday.

Mrs. Mattie Phebus returned Monday to Portland. She has been visiting her parents for several days.

Miss Lena Brown of Independence is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. C. C. Marks of Luckiamute.

Mrs. Monroe Kirkland came Friday night from Portland, where she has been spending a few days with her parents.

Tom Fitchard and C. Long, of Utica, N. Y., sailed Saturday morning on the steamer Rose City for San Francisco.

Mrs. Miles Porterfield came Friday from Eastern Oregon, where she attended the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Wright.

Mrs. J. M. Craven and little daughter returned Wednesday morning from Crowley, where they have been visiting.

Mrs. Oscar Johnson of Salem came Saturday evening to spend a few days with her brother, Dr. Allin. She returned Wednesday.

The Rebekah lodge of this city will celebrate its fifteenth anniversary next Tuesday and expect to have a special program and lunch for the members.

J. M. Murney of Independence, Polk county manager of the Pacific Telephone Company, was in Dallas this morning, enroute for Portland on a business visit.

Miss Ida Richardson resigned her position as night operator for the Home Telephone Co. at this place and will take up her sewing again November the first.

Bill Murphy and wife of Portland passed through here Monday on their way home after a few days visit at Monmouth. Mr. Murphy was one of Monmouth's best athletes.

Mr. Byron Atkins and wife of Corvallis came Saturday to visit relatives in this city. Mr. Atkins went to Portland Sunday and Mrs. Atkins returned to Corvallis Monday.

Mrs. Robert DeArmond, who was taken to Portland some time ago to undergo an operation for stomach trouble, is reported to be recovering nicely, the operation having been very successful.

I have a buyer for a hundred acres of land. Will pay $6000 for it. Land must be first class and not spotted. Wanted for grain raising. Be quick to answer this. Chas. E. Hicks, Independence, Oregon.

H. A. Hinshaw, traveling freight agent of the Southern Pacific Co., was in Independence Monday arranging matters looking to the coming of the farming demonstration train to be in Independence November 6th.

Charley Huntley, manager of Polk county's poor farm, although being a staunch Republican, says he is going to vote for Bryan this election because he thinks if Bryan is elected he will have all the Democrats out at the poor farm with him.

Mrs. J. W. Webber was brought back from the Willamette Sanatorium Monday, after undergoing a successful operation at that institution. Mrs. Webber has suffered for a good many years and her friends are pleased that the operation promises her complete recovery.

Notice to Settle Up.
I hereby give notice that I am about to close my harness shop business in Independence. All parties owing me are requested to call on or before November 15, 1908, and settle their accounts either by cash or note.

Perfection of Detail

Bridge & Beach "Superior"

These heaters give you satisfaction. They warm the apartments better than any other stove, because they are made to throw out the heat. You know that with some heaters you are freezing when the stove is red hot. Those are not the "Superior"—wood eaters.

Our "Superior" steel ranges embody best construction and features in these popular style ranges. Attractively nicked, malleable iron joined with cold driven rivets are some of the features of this fine range. It is not an ordinary range. It is not bolted together so that in a short time the bolts work loose, the putty drops out and "air leaks" come in, causing waste of fuel and slow baking. The Superior Steel range is perfection in every construction detail.

The Chauffeur and the Jewels

her the enclosed jewels, as a slight return for the many kind favors that have rendered his memorable Washington sojourn so agreeably diverting."

About a week after Mrs. Waring's very sudden departure for England, Town Tid-Bits had the following paragraph:

"Prince Roderigo del Pino—so the papers have it—only arrived in New York yesterday on the Scotia, and is to give Newport's summer colony a glimpse of his titles and millions to-morrow.

"Can it be possible that there are two Roderigo del Pinos? If not, may we ask the identity of the mysterious Italian nobleman, who disported himself in Washington two weeks ago in the train of that noted society leader, Mrs. R—d W—g, whose rumored engagement to the Earl of L—y, we understand, is an undoubted fact?"

(The End.)

Would Mortgage the Farm.

A farmer on Rural Route 2, Empire, Ga., W.A. Floyd by name, says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured the two worst sores I ever saw; one on my hand and one on my leg. It is worth more than its weight in gold and I would not be without it if I had to mortgage the farm to get it." Only 25c at all druggists.
